

Event-For-Credit Program

with the Hill Library and Concordia University

Are you interested in learning how to effectively grow and manage your business?

The Hill Library has partnered with Concordia University to offer you event-for-credit learning sessions at the Hill Library delivered by nationally-renowned business experts.

You can now attend a Hill Library business expert event and receive a credit from Concordia University's School of Continuing Studies upon completion of 15 learning hours.

How it works:

The process is simple. Follow these easy steps to register for an event:

1. Select an event you want to attend. Visit www.jjhill.org/events to view a listing of all upcoming Hill Library events.
2. Contact Concordia University's School of Continuing Studies at 651.603.6268 to confirm your credit registration and review specific requirements for the credit-bearing event.
4. Register online for the event at www.jjhill.org by entering the coupon code you'll receive from Concordia University.
5. Attend full event and complete two assignments:
 - A 5-page event summary.
 - An 8-page research paper written in consultation with a Hill librarian.
6. Submit assignments to Instructor specified by Concordia University.
7. The Registrar's office will issue your final grades via BEAR Path at <https://bearpath.csp.edu>.
