

The Oswald Hoffmann School of Christian Outreach
(OHSCO) is offering a Workshop on Missional Leadership

God's People as Missional Leaders: Exploring God's Plans for Church and Community

July 23 - July 25, 2009

Schedule:

Thursday, July 23, 2009

Morning—Breakfast, Devotion, Teaching on Missio Dei and Spiritual Leadership, and Cohort conversations

Afternoon—Continued teaching; cohort conversations

Dinner—Round table discussions/Evening—Free

Friday, July 24, 2009

Morning—Breakfast, Devotion, Teaching on Discipleship for Mission and Spiritual Formation, Cohort conversations

Afternoon—“Urban Plunge” experience

Dinner—Round table discussions/Evening—Free

Saturday, July 25, 2009

Morning—Breakfast, Devotion, Teaching on Old and New Testament Interpretation and Scripture in Leadership Formation, Cohort conversations

Afternoon—Teaching on Living Each Day as an Outreach Leader and Preparing an Implementation Plan

Dinner—Round table discussions/Evening—Free

Option to Explore the Master of Arts in Christian Outreach (MACO) program:

This precommitment orientation will allow you to explore the possibility of registering as a MACO student

Wednesday, July 22, 2009

7:00 a.m. through 6:15 p.m. (three meals included; there is no cost to you for this additional day of programming)

This will include an overview of the MACO program, introduction to the classes, uniqueness of the eFolio practical application, MACO's connection with OHSCO and an opportunity to have your questions answered.