

Life Experience Essay and Application Evaluation Sheet

The following five elements are required for a paper to earn college credit. If one of the elements is not met the paper earns 0 credits and is returned to student

Yes	No	Requirements
		The title reflects the content and scope of the paper
		The paper met the equivalency as indicated by student on cover sheet
		The topic is equivalent to college level course of learning
		Use of Kolb model* all four stages of the Kolb model must be included
		Three (3) scholarly references are cited to support the learning

Evaluation- Kolb Model:

Possible Points	Points Awarded	Kolb Model Stages
1-10		Concrete Experience
1-10		Reflection observation
1-10		Generalization (apply to the world)
1-10		Application to a new situation

Total: 0

Evaluation- Writing Mechanics:

Possible Points	Points Awarded	Requirements
1-10		Clear introduction and conclusion
1-10		Writing demonstrates the ability to relate content to an audience
1-10		Material was developed and well organized, examples given when needed
1-10		Sentences are constructed correctly: no fragments/comma splices/run ons
1-10		Written work is free of errors in word selection, spelling, and punctuation
1-10		Appropriate use of APA style

Total: 0

Essay Title: _____

Total Points: 0 Essay must earn at least 65 points to qualify for credit

Student Name: _____

Student ID #: _____

Credits Awarded: _____ Rework requested: _____

Rationale for number of credits:

Comments to student:

Evaluator: _____

Date: _____