ACADEMIC INTEGRITY (FH 6.87)

A. Definition of Terms

1. Academic integrity is essential to any academic institution and is in keeping with the mission of Concordia University. In order to protect the rights of students, the disciplinary procedure for dealing with cases of academic dishonesty follows these broad guidelines. Violations of academic integrity include “cheating” and “plagiarism” as defined by the university’s Student Code of Conduct (SCC).

2. The term “cheating” includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; or (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the University faculty or staff (4) academic deception (e.g. fabricating data, misrepresenting sources, misleading presentations, lying) in written or oral form.

3. The term “plagiarism” includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

B. Implementation of Academic Integrity Policies

1. The instructor will gather and document all evidence of academic dishonesty in a clear and concise manner.

2. The instructor will present this evidence to the student.

3. The instructor may prescribe academic penalties, including but not restricted to, the requirement of additional work, an assignment of a failing grade on the work in question, or failing grade for the entire course. Any prescribed penalties must be in writing.

4. The instructor will file an electronic Report of Classroom Incident Form (found on the University Portal.) This file will be shared with the Vice President for Academic Affairs’ Office. The VPAA will forward the incident form to the Dean of the college responsible for the class in which the incident occurred. The Dean will notify the student via email of the charge(s), decision, and appeal process.

5. If this is a repeated occurrence, the Department Chair, Dean of the College and the Vice President for Academic Affairs may impose additional penalties, including but not limited to dismissal from the departmental program, suspension from the university, or expulsion from the university.

6. A student has the right to appeal the charge and/or academic penalties imposed by the instructor by filing an appeal with the Dean of the college within three university business days.

7. The Dean of the college reviews the form and determines if the appeal should be approved or denied. The Dean will make the decision based on information provided in the appeal; the incident is not reheard. The Dean will email the student and the reporting faculty member with a decision of the appeal and will also include information on the final appeals process to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. This response regarding the appeal is normally received within ten university business days.
8. A student has the right to a final appeal by emailing the Vice President for Academic Affairs with reasons for appeal within three university business days from the notification send date of the Dean’s appeal decision. The Vice President for Academic Affairs will make the final decision and notify the student via email along with the reporting faculty member and Dean. No further appeals will be heard.

ADDING/DROPPING/WITHDRAWING FROM COURSES IN TRADITIONAL PROGRAMS  (FH 7.26)

A. Definition of terms

1. Drop without record: No entry is recorded on the student’s permanent record.
2. Withdrawal (Drop with record): A “W” grade is entered on the student’s permanent record. A “W” grade does not affect a student’s grade point average but does count toward credits attempted and may impact the student’s satisfactory progress. Standards for satisfactory progress are defined in 7.33 Satisfactory Progress Policy and recorded in the academic catalog.
3. Courses: A “course” is defined as any credit-bearing traditional or web-based class, field experience, internship, or independent study in the traditional programs.
4. Effective dates: The date that the course addition or withdrawal is effective is the date that all required forms with all required signatures are received by the Registrar.
5. Full-semester courses = 15 weeks; Half-semester courses = 7 weeks

B. Deadlines for adding a course

1. After classes have begun for fall, spring and summer semester, students may add half-semester (7-week) and full-semester (15-week) courses within the first five academic calendar days of the course (not including weekends and holidays) only with the permission of the instructor. Internship and independent study course may be added within the first ten days of the semester.
2. Students may add a course, internship, or independent study for a summer term through the end of the first days of class of that term only with the permission of the instructor. This includes submitting paperwork for an internship or independent study.

C. Deadlines for dropping and withdrawing from a course

1. Dropping without record
   a. Full-semester (15-week) courses: Students may drop without record within the first ten academic calendar days (not including weekends and holidays) of full-semester courses.
   b. Half-semester (7-week) courses: Students may drop without record within the first five academic calendar days (not including weekends and holidays) of half-semester courses.

2. Withdrawal (Drop with record)
   a. Full-semester (15-week) courses: Students may withdraw from full-semester courses anytime from the eleventh class day (not including weekends and holidays but including class days when the particular course does not meet) through the fiftieth class day and receive a “W” grade.
   b. Half-semester (7-week) courses: Students may withdraw from half-semester courses anytime from the sixth academic calendar day (not including weekends and holidays) through the twentieth-fifth class day and receive a “W” grade.
ADMINISTRATIVE DROP/WITHDRAW (7.29) FOR TRADITIONAL STUDENTS

A. Administrative Drop (Day 1 of semester through the last day to drop without record)
If a student has not:

- attended any registered courses
- communicated with instructors or advisor
- submitted any assignments, that student will be dropped from all registration for the term and withdrawn from the university. This will be completed by the last day to drop a traditional course without record. Their Academic Advisor will attempt to contact the student via phone and email to inform him/her that this process has been initiated.

If by the last day to drop a traditional courses there is no response from the student, the Academic Advisor will complete the University Withdrawal Form on behalf of the student indicating that the student never attended.

B. Administrative Withdraw (After last day to drop without record through the last day to withdraw)
If, after beginning and participating in classes, a student then stops:

- attending class(es) for at least two weeks
- communicating with instructors or advisor
- submitting any assignments, the Academic Advisor will attempt to contact the student with a participation warning. The student will have 48 hours after final notice to declare their intent to continue or show engagement in the course(s).

If there is no response from the student, the Academic Advisor will complete the University Withdrawal Form on behalf of the student to have them withdrawn from the course(s) indicating the last date of attendance (if available). The student will receive a grade of "W" for the course(s).

AUDITING COURSES (FH 7.28) IN TRADITIONAL PROGRAMS

A. Students who satisfy the requirements for admission may register to audit a course without receiving academic credit for the course. Registration procedures are the same as for credit bearing courses. The course fee is at a reduced rate unless the course fits under the regular credit limit of 19 credits per semester.

B. Auditing students need not meet regular course requirements but should confer with the instructor as to their privileges and responsibilities in the course. Upon completion of the course, a grade of “V” is recorded on the student’s permanent record.

C. Students may find it helpful to audit a course to review materials for a more advanced course or to enrich an interest area. Auditors are excluded from laboratory and studio participation.

D. Students may change regular registration to an audit before the end of the eighth week of the semester. Registration may be canceled for non-attendance.

CLASS ATTENDANCE (FH 7.40)

- Full Semester (15-Week) Courses:
  1. Students are expected to attend all class meetings and laboratory sessions for the courses in which they are enrolled.
2. Excessive absences as determined by the instructor and written in the course syllabus may result in disqualification or failure.

3. Instructors must include policies for handling absences and make-up work in the syllabus. Instructors may not penalize (not accept papers, not allow a student to make up a test or quiz, remove participation points, etc.) students who are required to be absent from class because of official university activities. Examples of such activities are intercollegiate athletics, university music tours, theater productions, and so forth. Students, however, are responsible for informing the instructor in advance of the impending absence (according to a timetable determined by the instructor) and for making up any missed work at a time determined by the instructor. Instructors have the right to contact the appropriate person to determine the legitimacy of the intended absence.

4. Instructors planning field trips or any other official university activities must secure the appropriate approvals as outlined in Faculty Handbook Policy 6.65.

5. Instructors must be able to determine the student’s last day of attendance.

Half Semester (7-Week) Courses:

1. Students are expected to attend all class meetings and laboratory sessions for the courses in which they are enrolled.

2. Excessive absences as determined by the instructor and written in the course syllabus may result in disqualification or failure.

3. Instructors must include policies for handling absences and make-up work in the syllabus. Instructors may not penalize (not accept papers, not allow a student to make up a test or quiz, remove participation points, etc.) students who are required to be absent from class because of official university activities. Examples of such activities are intercollegiate athletics, university music tours, theater productions, and so forth. Students, however, are responsible for informing the instructor in advance of the impending absence (according to a timetable determined by the instructor) and for making up any missed work at a time determined by the instructor. Instructors have the right to contact the appropriate person to determine the legitimacy of the intended absence.

4. Instructors planning field trips or any other official university activities must secure the appropriate approvals as outlined in Faculty Handbook Policy 6.65.

5. Instructors must be able to determine the student’s last day of attendance.

Based on the above policy:

- Students are required to log into Blackboard by the first meeting night of each course and are expected to have weekly engagement in the courses in which they are enrolled. Students must attend all classes/chats and submit coursework according to assigned deadlines. Any accommodations to the attendance or coursework requirements must be coordinated with the instructor for approval in advance. Instructors are not required to allow missed class/chat time or to accept late coursework. Makeup options are at the discretion of the course instructor and ARE NOT to be considered a precedent for the program as a whole.

- If a student has no participation in a course(s) for 7 calendar days or stops participating before the start of the 6th week of the course, and they’re not responding to their Academic Advisor’s contacts, the student will receive a grade of “W” for the course(s) and dropped from all future registration. Please note, this can have financial obligations to the University.

- Failure to meet attendance guidelines or coordinate accommodations with the instructor may result in a lower grade being earned. Concordia graduate policy states that ONLY whole letter grades, i.e. A, B, etc., can be assigned.

Attendance Guidelines and Requirements:

- Students who must miss a class/chat are required to complete the regular assignments(s) and complete a make-up assignment that contributes to the subject being studied and enhances the class-learning environment. A missed class/chat may result in a grade reduction if the pre-determined accommodation(s) are not met.

- Two missed engagements in a course will result in additional grade reduction or being withdrawn from the course if pre-determined accommodation(s) are not met.
Regular attendance is a key factor in determining student success. Seven or more consecutive days of no engagement in a course could require retaking the course. The student will be billed and a grade will be issued each time the course is taken.

Instructors understand the uncertainty of military requirements and other contractual obligations, and they will work with the student to meet educational goals.

It is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor to make appropriate arrangements.

Punctuality is also a priority in any job setting. Students may find it necessary to be late for class once or twice. The student is responsible to notify the instructor of his/her presence and not assume that has been noted. Except in an emergency, the student will contact the instructor three days prior to the anticipated absence. A student will notify the instructor within 24 hours of the reason for any unexpected absence.

Assignments are due when scheduled. If there is need to modify the due date, the arrangement must be made three days in advance of the due date.

COURSE PLACEMENT (FH 7.23)

Where placement is required for general education courses, the department with the content expertise is responsible for placement. Content areas in which placement may be required are writing, reading, foreign language, and mathematics.

COURSE REPETITION (FH 7.25)

A. Students may repeat a course. The exception to this rule is CSP Seminar and College Turning Points, which cannot be dropped and/or retaken. International students may not be able to drop some courses based on placement scores.

B. If students repeat a course, only the higher/highest grade is used in computing cumulative grade point average (CGPA).

COURSE SUBSTITUTIONS (FH 7.24)

A. The Registrar will evaluate new student transcripts and apply general education credits according to University policy. Students wishing to apply additional transfer courses to general education credits, other than those initially accepted by the Registrar, must petition an exception using the Course Substitution Request form. A course syllabus for the transfer course must be included. This petition must be approved by the student’s advisor and the General Education Committee. The request will be retained in the student’s academic file.

B. Students wishing to apply transfer courses to their major, minor, or emphasis must petition for approval using the Course Substitution Request form. A course syllabus for the transfer course must be included. The petition must be approved by the student’s advisor and the chair of the department offering the major, minor, or emphasis. The request will be retained in the student’s academic file.

C. Students wishing to substitute a different Concordia University course for one required by a current major, minor, or emphasis must petition for approval using the Course Substitution Request form. The petition must be approved by the student’s advisor and the chair of the department offering the major, minor, or emphasis. The request will be retained in the student’s academic file.
DECLARING A MAJOR AND APPLICATION FOR GRADUATION (FH 7.81)

A. Students must declare a major or two minors upon completing 48 credits. Students may declare a major or two minors at any time prior to 48 credits.

B. Students must apply for graduation in accordance with the procedures set by the Registrar.

FINAL GRADE CHANGES (FH 6.70, H and I)

H. Grades (A, B, C, D, F, P/N) given in a specific course may not be changed after they have been reported to the Office of the Registrar by the instructor, unless it is found that an error has been made in calculation or recording. Grades earned in a course may not be changed due to work submitted in a later term. Errors in recording or miscalculation must be changed no later than the end of the semester following the error. Grade changes must have accompanying documentation and be approved by the faculty member, the Department Chair, and the Dean of the College.

I. Students who wish to appeal final course grades must do so within 90 days from the date the grade is posted by the Registrar.

PASS-NO PASS GRADING (FH 7.31)

A. In courses usually graded A-F

1. A course usually graded A-F may be taken P-N by a student if the course is an elective. A course is designated as elective when it is not used by a given student to meet any specific area or course requirement including the general education program, major, minor, or emphasis. To take a course usually graded A-F as a P-N course, a student must file the appropriate P-N form with the Office of the Registrar before the end of the seventh week of the term, or its equivalent for a half-semester course.

2. The “P” grade is equated to the normal “A” to “C-” grade range. P-N courses transferred in by students as required courses (a course is designated as required when it is used by a given students to meet any specific area or course requirement including the general education program, major, minor or emphasis.) are acceptable only from colleges where the grading system is the normal system as described above.

3. There is a four-credit limit of P-N courses per semester for sophomores, juniors and seniors. Other courses and internships (see below) which are graded by the P-N system do not count towards these limits.

B. In courses only graded P-N

1. Field experiences such as internships and student teaching, and intercollegiate athletic activities are offered ONLY on a “Pass-No Pass” basis.

2. A student may earn a maximum of eight credits in the combined music/ theatre area and one credit in each area of athletics that are applicable to the total credits for graduation requirements. The maximum credit limit applies to students who are not music/ theatre majors, minors or emphases.

3. Although these courses apply toward graduation requirements, they are not calculated into the cumulative grade point average.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS (FH 7.10)

A. To graduate from Concordia University, students must meet the requirements listed in the university catalog for the year of entrance or as modified at a later date if it is to their advantage.

B. Transfer students must meet modified course requirements within the total number of credits required in each area of the curriculum, as evaluated by the registrar. If a student transfers to Concordia with an associate of arts degree from an accredited institution or has met the State general education requirements all general education requirements will be satisfied with the exception of the theology requirement.

C. Students confronted with options in majors in transition are permitted to take the option most favorable to meet their needs and requirements.

D. A student may declare more than one major, minor, or emphasis as long as multiple majors, minors, or emphases have a maximum commonality of three courses, or one-fourth of the total credits of a major, minor, or emphasis, whichever is higher, except in the case of multiple teaching licensures.

INDEPENDENT STUDY (FH 6.62)

Definition: An independent study is an educational experience offered for credit outside the regularly scheduled classes. Instructors are responsible for the academic soundness of the independent study proposal and its implementation. The dean of each college in consultation with the registrar may designate low enrollment courses as independent studies.
Criteria:
A. Eligibility for independent study is limited to students in good standing.

B. Acceptable criteria for approval to register for independent study shall be due to schedule conflicts of existing courses, advanced study, or enrichment. Existing courses may be taken as independent study only if there are insurmountable schedule problems which might delay a student's graduation.

C. For existing courses, the approved course syllabus shall be followed. For instructor/student-designed courses, objectives, learning experiences, expectations, and evaluation methods shall be written. (See FH 6.25)

D. The independent study may be planned to extend up to one year of continuous registration.

E. Each credit hour represents approximately thirty clock hours of student work, including meetings with the instructor.

F. Students are normally limited to four semester hours of independent study per semester. A maximum of twelve hours may apply towards graduation requirements.

G. Registration for independent study shall normally occur when students register for their next semester's classes. Completed forms are due no later than the end of the second week of classes in the term.

H. Independent studies should be identified for registration by the departmental prefix followed by 488.

IN-PROGRESS GRADE (FH 7.301)

A. In-Progress ("I") grades may be given to students who have missed part of their assigned work due to circumstances beyond their control, but otherwise have done satisfactory work. Students who are unable to finish all the required coursework for a course may request an "I".

B. Instructors must submit the In-Progress Grade Request by the grading deadline to the registrar's office. It is the students' responsibility to initiate an In-Progress Grade Request. However, instructors may deny an In-Progress Grade Request.

C. Guidelines:

1. All course requirements to remove an In-Progress grade and in some cases to remove probationary or disqualification status must be completed within four weeks of the last day of class.

2. If students are unable to complete the work within four weeks, extensions may be requested from the instructor for a maximum of six months from the last day of the course.

3. If the work is not completed within the agreed upon time, the instructor will submit a grade, based on course grading procedures specified in the syllabus.

4. If a grade is not submitted to the Registrar by the agreed upon time, the recorded "I" will become an "F" or "N".
SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS (SAP) POLICY

To be eligible to register continuously without conditions, a student must achieve satisfactory progress by maintaining a 2.00 Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) AND complete a minimum cumulative of 67% of all attempted course work. Incompletes (I) and withdrawals (W) do not count toward completion.

When a student does not maintain satisfactory progress, the University will impose certain restrictions that will affect the student’s eligibility for enrollment and financial aid:

1. Academic Probation: Academic probation is a formal warning that students did not achieve satisfactory progress. Students will be notified of their probation status in writing by the Registrar. Financial aid continues for the term. Students placed on academic probation may enroll for no more than 16 credits for the following term, without written permission from the Petition Committee. Academic probation status appears on the student’s internal records, but it is not part of the permanent transcript. A student on academic probation must see his or her advisor before the start of the new term to complete a tutorial to plan for their success. A student success course is typically required during the first term on probation.

2. Disqualification: Disqualification occurs when students do not meet satisfactory academic progress requirements for two consecutive terms. Students will be notified of their disqualification in writing by the Registrar. Students are ineligible to register for subsequent terms, and financial aid is suspended. Students may appeal to be re-admitted by completing the Disqualification Appeal Form.

Disqualification Appeal Process

An appeal form must be submitted to the academic appeals committee. The academic appeals committee will decide approval or denial of students who are appealing their academic disqualification. Appeals must be submitted on the Disqualification Appeal Form and submitted to the academic appeals committee at least two weeks before the start of the term for which the student desires readmission. The appeal must state what undue hardship caused the student’s inability to meet satisfactory progress standards. The hardships could include illness, injury, or death of an immediate relative. Only special extenuating circumstances will be considered. Students must also explain how they propose to remedy their situation. If the appeal is successful, the student is readmitted on probationary status. Appeals are approved for one term only. Students may also show successful completion of 12 semester credits with a CGPA of 2.0 or higher from another accredited institution to indicate that they have overcome the challenges that caused the original disqualification.

STUDENT IN GOOD STANDING (FH 7.41)

Students who are not in good standing may be ineligible for certain privileges or activities. A student in good standing at Concordia University, St. Paul is one who:

1. is registered for the current term,
2. is attending class in accordance with Concordia’s class attendance policy,
3. is not delinquent in meeting financial obligations to the University,
4. is not on disciplinary probation, and
5. is not on academic probation.
STUDY ABROAD POLICY

Petition Process
Students interested in a study abroad program outside Concordia’s partner programs may petition to use another program. The petition process should be used when none of Concordia’s partner programs meet the student’s specific academic needs and objectives. Students will turn in the Petition Form with a detailed explanation of the quality of the desired program and reasons for seeking an outside program along with a completed Concordia Study Abroad Application by the appropriate deadlines. The CALL Center staff will make the final decisions regarding student petitions.

Eligibility Requirements
Students must meet the following criteria to be eligible to study abroad through Concordia University-St. Paul:
A. Have a minimum GPA of a 2.5 at the time of application. Specific programs may require a higher GPA. Students interest in studying abroad with a GPA lower than 2.5 should confer with CALL Center staff before submitting an application.
B. Hold sophomore, junior, or senior status at the time of study abroad participation. Transfer students must complete one semester at CSP before they may participate in a study abroad program.
C. Be in good academic and disciplinary standing at CSP. Students on academic or disciplinary probation are not eligible to study abroad. Students who are placed on academic or disciplinary probation after admittance to a study abroad program may be withdrawn from the study abroad program. In that instance, the student would be responsible for all non-recoverable costs incurred.
D. Not have an outstanding balance or any financial obligations to CSP before going abroad.
E. Demonstrate an ability to successfully adjust to new cultural, living, and academic conditions.

Credit Policy (FH 6.63)
Credits earned as part of a study abroad experience at a foreign institution approved through the CALL Center will be entered as “Pass” grades and do not count in GPA calculation. Students must earn a "C-") or higher to earn credit. Grades earned in Concordia University courses taught abroad will be figured into the student’s GPA.

Notification
All students should report, in writing to CALL Center staff, any accident or illness that results in hospitalization as a result of program participation.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY (FH 7.27)

1. Students who wish to discontinue from the university by withdrawing from all courses must complete the University Withdrawal Form in person or online.
2. The withdrawal date is determined at the time a student completes an University Withdrawal Form or otherwise notifies the University in writing of the intent to withdraw. Should a student fail to notify the Academic Advising office of the withdrawal, the withdrawal date is considered to be the last date of participation in any academically related activity, or, lacking that, the midpoint of the term.
WITHDRAWAL DUE TO ACTIVE MILITARY SERVICE
(Minnesota Statutes 2003, Chapter 192, 192.502 Protections)

A. 192.502 Protections.

A member of the Minnesota National Guard or any other military reserve component who is a student at a postsecondary education institution and who is called or ordered to state active service in the Minnesota National Guard, as defined in section 190.05, subdivision 5, or who is called or ordered to federal active military service has the following rights:

1. with regard to courses in which the person is enrolled, the person may:
2. withdraw from one or more courses for which tuition and fees have been paid that are attributable to the courses. The tuition and fees must be credited to the person's account at the postsecondary institution. Any refunds are subject to the requirements of the state or federal financial aid programs of origination. In such a case, the student must not receive credit for the courses and must not receive a failing grade, an incomplete, or other negative annotation on the student's record, and the student's grade point average must not be altered or affected in any manner because of action under this item;
3. be given a grade of incomplete and be allowed to complete the course upon release from active duty under the postsecondary institution's standard practice for completion of incompletes; or
4. continue and complete the course for full credit. Class sessions the student misses due to performance of state or federal active military service must be counted as excused absences and must not be used in any way to adversely impact the student's grade or standing in the class. Any student who selects this option is not, however, automatically excused from completing assignments due during the period the student is performing state or federal active military service. A letter grade or a grade of pass must only be awarded if, in the opinion of the faculty member teaching the course, the student has completed sufficient work and has demonstrated sufficient progress toward meeting course requirements to justify the grade;
5. to receive a refund of amounts paid for room, board, and fees attributable to the time period during which the student was serving in state or federal active military service and did not use the facilities or services for which the amounts were paid. Any refund of room, board, and fees is subject to the requirements of the state or federal financial aid programs of origination; and
6. if the student chooses to withdraw, the student has the right to be readmitted and reenrolled as a student at the postsecondary education institution, without penalty or redetermination of admission eligibility, within one year following release from the state or federal active military service.

B. The protections in this section may be invoked follows:

1. the person, or an appropriate officer from the military organization in which the person will be serving, must give advance verbal or written notice that the person is being called or ordered to qualifying service;

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

Confidentiality of Student Education Records

A. Students enrolled in Concordia University, St. Paul are required to give certain information in order that the University may make reasonable judgments about them, provide services, and give informed advice regarding courses to be followed. Such personal data and information may become part of the student education record. Students may make the justifiable assumption that the University, as custodian of this data, will preserve the data’s private nature. By requiring or requesting such information, Concordia University gives assurance that the information will be protected against improper disclosure.

B. Concordia University observes the following principles as outlined in FERPA:

1. Appropriate Concordia University officials are held directly responsible and accountable for the careful protection of student education records against possible misuse.
2. Within Concordia University, student education records will be used only for appropriate research, educational, and administrative functions. Access to those records is allowed only to those members of Concordia University community whose designated responsibilities reasonably require access or to persons to whom the student has given written permission for access.

4. Students have the right to access, inspect, and obtain copies of all information in their student education records except:
   a. Financial information submitted by parents
   b. Confidential letters and recommendations collected under established policies of confidentiality or to which the student has waived in writing the right of inspection and review.
   c. As outlined in specific procedures required for access to judicial records (see below).
   d. Additionally, the University may deny access to private records of instructors, administrators, or other staff kept for their own use; and alumni records that contain only directory information and information collected after the student has left the University.
5. Students have the right to request amendment of the contents of student education records, to have a hearing if the result of the request for amendment is unsatisfactory, and to include a statement for inclusion in the record if the decision resulting from the hearing is unacceptable to the student.
6. Concordia University notifies students annually in this document of their privacy rights, their right to file complaints concerning alleged failures of Concordia University to comply with their privacy rights, and where copies of the Concordia University policy and procedures on access to student records may be obtained.
   a. For the steps to access an academic record, students contact the Registrar.
   b. For the steps to access a judicial record, students contact the Judicial Officer or Dean of Students (see details below).
   c. To file a complaint concerning alleged failures of Concordia University to comply with FERPA requirements, individuals contact the Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Dept. of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue SW, Washington, D.C. 20202-4605.

Directory Information

Certain information in the student record, termed “directory information,” may be released in answer to inquiries without requiring authorization from the student. This information is outlined in two categories below. Students may choose to have the University withhold directory information from the public at any time during their enrollment. To request withholding, students complete the Student Information Suppression/Release Form, available from the Registrar’s office. After this form is processed, the entire student record is suppressed until the student submits the Student Information Suppression/Release to release information. Possible repercussions of student record suppression are listed on the form.
A. Category I
The student’s name, address, gender, ethnicity, date of birth, electronic (E-mail) address, home town, telephone number, dates of enrollment and enrollment status (full time, part time, not enrolled, withdrawn and date of withdrawal), major, minor, adviser, photo, college and class, academic awards and honors received (including dean’s list recognition), curricular and co-curricular activities, and (in the event of the student’s graduation) the degree(s) received/conferred (including dates), are matters of public record or directory information.

B. Category II (For Athletes Only)
Past and present participation in university sponsored sports, physical factors (height, weight of athletes), and birth date are considered directory information for athletes only.

Non-Directory Information

Student education records, in addition to directory information, include, but are not limited to: transcripts, test scores, college advising records, disciplinary files, financial aid information, housing records, and records of educational services that are provided to students. Such records are not disclosed to anyone except:

1. The student and others on written authorization by the student;
2. Persons within Concordia University who need access to the information to carry out their employment responsibilities for educational, administrative, or research purposes;
3. Other educational institutions in which the student seeks to enroll, provided the disclosure is limited to official copies of student transcripts or test scores from the appropriate Concordia University office;
4. Other organizations conducting educational research studies provided the studies are conducted in a manner that will not permit identification of students and the information will be destroyed when no longer needed for the purpose for which the study was conducted;
5. Persons in compliance with a court order or lawfully issued subpoena, provided that a reasonable attempt is made to notify the student in advance of compliance thereof;
6. Appropriate persons in connection with an emergency, provided the information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other individuals;
7. Accrediting organizations and state or federal education authorities when the information is needed for auditing, evaluating, or enforcing legal requirements of educational programs, provided the accrediting organizations and authorities protect the data in a manner that will not permit the personal identification of students and personally identifiable information is destroyed when no longer needed;
8. Appropriate persons or agencies in connection with a student’s application for or receipt of financial aid to determine eligibility, amount, or conditions of financial aid;
9. Parents of a dependent student, as defined under the Internal Revenue Code. (Each time a parent requests access to records the parent must submit a current tax statement listing the dependent student.)

Judicial Records

The University maintains a file in the office of Judicial Affairs for each person found to be responsible for a Code of Conduct violation. Judicial Affairs may, under FERPA exception, disclose information related to student conduct records to Concordia University officials with legitimate educational interests. This includes academic and extra-curricular departmental programs and it may affect eligibility for programs. The Office of Judicial Affairs may, at the student’s request, reveal the contents to other University departments, employers, schools and others. The Judicial Officer is required to provide access to a student’s file when subpoenaed by a court or federal agency, or as otherwise required by law.

A student wishing to view his or her conduct file should contact the Office of Judicial Affairs to schedule an appointment. Federal Law requires that the requested file be reviewed and information on any other student be redacted. The requesting student will be permitted to view his or her prepared file, but will not be allowed to copy, take pictures, or otherwise record the documents. This request will be fulfilled within 45 days of the written request. Student judicial files are normally kept for seven (7) years.
Other Records

Concordia University maintains other records that contain information about students.

A. Information in medical or psychological counseling records, including results of examinations or assessments by Concordia University personnel, is afforded greater protection and is governed by State and federal laws regarding records of that nature. Concordia University obtains such information with a commitment as to its highly private nature. Such records will not be disclosed to anyone, including other University personnel, except (a) under direct written authorization by the student, (b) pursuant to a court order signed by a judge, or (c) as otherwise required by law.

B. Concordia University Security and Human Resources records contain information about students, but are not student education records and are not covered by this policy. University offices which are responsible for such records observe information release policies which protect the subjects of such records against improper disclosure and are consistent with applicable laws.

Student Consumer Information

Concordia University fully complies with Public Law 101-542 The Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act, as amended by Public Law 102-26, the Higher Education Technical Amendments of 1991. Under these laws, retention and completion rates for entering students are kept by the director of institutional research and are available to all current and prospective students. The Safety and Security office makes available to all students various policies and statements regarding campus security, including statistics on various types of crime that may have occurred. A copy of the campus Alcohol and Drug Policy can be found in this handbook.

FINANCIAL HOLDS

If you are not current in your payments to Concordia University (on an approved payment plan) or have an unpaid balance on your student account, you may be placed on financial hold. While you are on financial hold:

- You will be deregistered for or not allowed to attend the next term.
- Your unpaid balance is subject to finance charges or late fees.
- Since you are not registered, financial aid for the next term will be canceled.
- If you do not register for the upcoming term, your student loans will lose current in-school deferment and may go into repayment status.
- You will be responsible for payment of all costs associated with the collection of your unpaid balance, including finance charges, collections fees, and attorney’s fees.
- You will not receive any transcripts or diploma.
- If you are a veteran, your benefits will be discontinued.

GRADES

Final grades are posted on students’ accounts (accessed through CSP Connect) approximately one to two weeks after the grade submission deadline for faculty. Students are responsible for monitoring their grades and academic status.

HEALTH INSURANCE FOR TRADITIONAL STUDENTS

The Affordable Health Care Act requires that everyone has health insurance and provides access to coverage. With this change to the law, Concordia University also expects that all students carry health insurance. It is the student’s responsibility to provide payment or insurance for any physical or mental health medical needs.
Concordia University assumes no liability for student illness or injury and no responsibility for medical bills and/or services contracted for by students. It is the responsibility of the student to carry the insurance card at all times to have available in case of illness or injury.

Students and families that are concerned about health insurance should know that the Affordable Care Act requires everyone to have health insurance. There are many options available to students, including, being covered on their parent’s policy until age 26 or purchasing coverage through an insurance exchange. The insurance exchange is an online resource where you can find information about different health plans and coverage. Healthcare.gov is the federal insurance exchange. Residents of Minnesota can look under MNsure.org where you can access the cost for each plan and enroll or find out whether you qualify for financial assistance based on annual income.

IMMUNIZATION REQUIREMENTS FOR TRADITIONAL STUDENTS

Minnesota State Law (statute 135A.14) requires that traditional students taking face-to-face classes must submit their immunization records to have on file at the university prior to attending their first semester. Students who do not submit these records will have a HOLD placed on their academic records until this requirement is met.

Concordia Admissions Department will inform students how to submit the immunization information. It must be done electronically.

REQUIRED immunizations are:

1) Tdap (Tetanus-Diptheria-Pertussis) Must be given less than 10 years ago.
2) MMR (Measles, Mumps, Rubella)

RECOMMENDED immunizations are for:

1) Hepatitis B series
2) Meningitis
3) Varicella (chicken pox)
4) Hepatitis A series
5) Human Papilloma Virus series
6) Annual Flu shot

Students living and studying in close contact are more susceptible to some illnesses/infections/diseases so please consider that when deciding on immunizations.

Please check with your health care provider about receiving these immunizations and submit this information along with the required immunization information.

EXEMPTIONS:

Minnesota Law provides these exemptions from immunizations:

1) Conscientious Objection based on held beliefs. This exemption must be received prior to the students first term, signed by student (or parent/guardian) and NOTARIZED.
2) A Medical Exemption may be issued because of a contraindication to an immunization based on some medical condition. Medical exemptions must be signed by a LICENSED MEDICAL PROVIDER.
If there is an outbreak of the disease of objection, the student will need to be immunized at that time or excluded from classes until the outbreak is over.

UNABLE TO LOCATE DATES OF IMMUNIZATIONS

If a student cannot locate immunization records the options are:

1) Get the required immunizations again and submit the date/s.
2) Have a blood test (titer) to determine the immune status and submit the information.

OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION BY EMAIL (FH 7.36)

A. Official University communication to individual students often contains private and/or time-sensitive material. In order to ensure that information is being sent only to the enrolled student (and not co-workers or family members), Concordia University sends official communications electronically to its students through the University’s email system, the @csp.edu address.

B. Because much of the information includes materials that must be completed or responded to by a deadline that can affect such things as enrollment or financial aid, students are expected to read and respond to all official communications sent by the University to their @csp.edu address in a timely way.

PROBATION, SUSPENSION, EXPULSION, REJECTION, OR DISMISSAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY

The University reserves the right at any time to refuse admission or re-admission, to place on disciplinary probation or academic probation, or to suspend or to expel students for cause.

RELEASE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION
A. The University reserves the right (on its own initiative) to inform family, e.g., a parent or legal guardian:
   1. that a residential student is expected to be hospitalized for more than 24 hours;
   2. that a traditional student has been suspended or expelled from the University or from University housing.

B. Under federal law, the University may contact parents or guardians if a student under the age of 21 violates University rules or other laws regarding alcohol and controlled substances.

C. The University also reserves the right (on its own initiative or in conformity with the law) to inform any other person(s), based upon information given to a member of the Concordia community (even in “confidence”), that their health or safety may be endangered.

STUDENT HOSPITALIZATION OR SURGERY
A. Students who live in campus housing must notify the Residence Life Manager in charge of their residence hall when they have been hospitalized or undergone surgery during the academic year.

B. Upon discharge from the hospital or surgery, students may not return to the campus residence unless they are able to perform all of their own self-care measures and can return to normal activities of daily living.

C. Upon return to the campus residence following hospitalization or surgery, students must present documentation from their health care provider indicating their ability to perform self-care to the director of health services and appropriate campus housing official.

D. The Residence Life Manager in charge of the student’s residence has the right to notify family members of a hospitalization when appropriate. If the student desires that his/her course instructors be informed of his/her absence, the Director of Advising may be asked to assist in this communication. Communication with Student Accessibility Services may also occur if students are needing accommodations (short- or long-term).

E. Any students that would like assistance in notifying their professors should contact the Academic Advising Office.
TUITION PAYMENT METHOD

All credit card payments on student accounts must be made on-line. The University does not accept credit card payments through the mail, in person, or over the phone. On-line payment is made through the CSP Connect portal. The student is responsible any service charge for a credit card transaction. Accepted credit cards include MasterCard, American Express, and Discover. On-line payments can also be made from checking or savings accounts. Checks may also be sent to the Concordia lockbox at Concordia University, NW 5884, PO Box 1450, Minneapolis, MN 55485, or brought in person to the Cashier window.

UNIVERSITY CLOSINGS

A. The personal safety of students, faculty and staff is vital to the Concordia University. While Concordia University expects that individuals make a good faith effort to travel to campus during inclement weather conditions if the university is operating and does not declare an emergency closing, it is also important for individuals to use their own discretion in determining whether it is safe for them to travel to campus.

B. On rare occasions when weather has been determined to pose a potential threat to the life or safety of students, staff, and faculty, the decision to close the university will be made using these guidelines:

1. By 7:00 a.m. decisions regarding closing and cancellation or delay of day classes will be announced.
2. By 11:00 a.m. decisions regarding cancellation of afternoon classes will be announced.
3. By 2:00 p.m. decisions regarding cancellation of face-to-face evening classes or University sponsored evening events will be announced.
4. Notices regarding closings, cancellations or delays will be immediately posted on the Concordia University Campus Portal web page. This should be used as the primary resource for students, staff and faculty, since detailed information will be included in this location.
5. The university will notify local media stations after posting on the campus portal. You will see these notices on KARE11, WCCO, and KSTP. We are unable to control how rapidly these external media sources update their announcements. So rely on the portal as your authoritative source on campus closure.
6. All students, faculty and staff are signed up for Concordia Campus Alert. This system will automatically send an email and text message alerting to campus closures and emergencies.
Student Accessibility Services (SAS):

Concordia University–St. Paul is committed to providing an accessible education to students in compliance with all relevant federal and state laws, including section 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADAAA, 2008) and the Minnesota Human Rights Act. Student Accessibility Services (SAS) is available for any qualified student in traditional, undergraduate, graduate, online and continuing education courses. We serve students with appropriate evidence of disability or those who need academic accommodations for short term medical conditions. We also provide referral to on campus and outside resources, such as tutoring, counseling services or testing evaluations.

Student Accessibility Services is responsible for determining both disability status and reasonable accommodations at CSP in order to ensure equal and fair access in a timely manner. Students who work outside of the scope of these policies or do not follow SAS procedures may not meet eligibility for services as a qualified student with a disability.

I. Student with a Disability Defined:

- “A person who is substantially limited in a major life activity and also meets academic and technical standards for admission or participation in the institution's educational program or activity.” (The student must be admitted, currently enrolled and not disqualified.)
- Student has evidence of, or is regarded as having, a long or short term impairment that significantly and functionally limits the individual.
- Documentation is required to verify the existence of the condition and limitations it may pose to the learning environment. For short term conditions or pending diagnosis, documentation timelines may be extended at the discretion of SAS staff.
- SAS staff reserves the right to make the determination of if a medical condition rises to the level of disability and also to request additional supporting documentation.

Common examples of disability: Learning Disability, ADD/ADHD, Mental Health (depression, anxiety, bi-polar disorder, PTSD), significant emotional acute trauma (short term), physical disabilities, visual disabilities, attentional disorders, spectrum disorders, Deaf or hard of hearing, short term surgical or medical impairments that substantially limit a major life activity.

Common examples that may not rise to the level of disability: Colds, flu or other short term illness or medical issues that do not functionally limit a major life activity and are expected to resolve fairly quickly. Visual impairments that are corrected by corrective lenses also are generally not covered.

A special note about pregnant students: Students who are pregnant may be covered under the ADAAA and Title IX. Due to the unique modifications that are required for pregnant students, referral to a Title IX Coordinator will be made in these cases.

II. Accessing Support and Services through Student Accessibility Services:

Students may be referred by faculty, staff, parent/guardians or other specialists but the legal responsibility for contact and follow up is that of the qualified student.

Steps To Set Up Services:

1. Contact SAS Staff:
   - Schedule an Intake appointment to determine accommodations or referral for your specific concerns: SAS@csp.edu
   - An intake appointment is required as part of this process.
     Call: 651-641-8272, 651-641-8207 or email SAS@csp.edu to schedule a time.
2. Provide documentation of disability to SAS staff:
   o Students obtain this information and provide it to SAS, but SAS staff can assist via providing a form for a care provider to complete. This documentation will remain confidential.
   o Documentation is required before accommodations are implemented. Documentation must be received before the start of classes/program or as soon as possible after an impairment is diagnosed.

3. A qualified care provider, such as a specialist, psychologist, or physician authorizes the documentation along with information on how the student is functionally impaired.

4. After documentation is received and intake appointment completed:
   o SAS staff will develop an official Verification of Individualized Services and Accommodation (VISA) form. Staff will discuss specifics of accommodations or provide policy information to the student at that time—it may also be sent via email.
   o The VISA is the student’s official verification that specific accommodations have been approved and are generally recommended. Not all accommodations will work for every class or program and therefore, interaction with appropriate staff or instructors on reasonableness of listed accommodations is still often required.

5. Provide VISA to instructors prior to, or the first few days of class.
   o Email is an acceptable way to provide information to instructors.
   o SAS staff can provide VISA/accommodation forms to instructors, but students are encouraged to send their own VISA plans.
   o Students who o Faculty may contact SAS staff for verification of accommodation needs.
   o It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that the faculty member has received the VISA form and is aware of accommodations—SAS staff does not automatically check due to the number of students we serve.

6. Work with your faculty member/SAS staff and to complete course requirements:
   • Students are expected to complete all course assignments/expectations with or without accommodation and communicate with instructional staff/faculty about their needs.

If there are concerns regarding accommodations, please let SAS staff know early in the class or semester!

III. Confidentiality:

Student Accessibility Services is committed to ensuring that all information and communication regarding students and their disabilities is confidential except when disclosure is authorized by the student, permitted by law and/or required.

SAS staff takes confidentiality seriously. Every student is provided information on confidentiality and asked to sign a confidentiality agreement in order to ensure clarity in confidentiality roles.

Students have the right to decline to sign confidentiality documents, however, this does not change SAS policies and procedures in accordance with the law.

Important things to know:

1. The goal of confidentiality procedures is to ensure that a student with a disability will not be discriminated against based on his/her disability. As an adult participant in the accommodation process, students can disclose what they want to or not to others.

2. Once a student becomes 18, the FERPA (Federal Educational Right to Privacy Act) and ADAAA comes into effect. This means that information regarding student’s academic history and other protected information cannot be released to anyone, including parents, without the express consent of the student, and only in a limited fashion (this is called proxy access).

3. Parents or outside parties cannot advocate for, or negotiate on behalf of, the student even if proxy access and SAS releases are signed.

4. Students need not disclose their specific disability to faculty or staff. The accommodation form (VISA) will provide information that faculty or staff need to know in order to implement accommodations for a course or program, which does not indicate disability.

5. As some of the information provided may be medical in nature and covered under HIPPA, no one within the university community has access to a student’s medical disability-related information except in very specific and/or emergency situations. To protect confidentiality, all disability-related diagnostic documentation will be kept in a file separate from a student’s academic record. This information will be shredded seven years after a student has graduated or withdrawn from CSP.

6. Releases for Financial Aid or other agencies on the CSP campus do not apply to Student Accessibility Services. Students must sign an addition release that will indicate who is authorized to discuss information with SAS staff including care providers, parents, other educational institutions. A release must also be signed to share information with other internal agencies (such as counseling).

Exceptions to Confidentiality:
1. Once a student discloses disability or medical information to someone outside of SAS (e.g., faculty or other staff members) there is no guarantee that diagnostic information can remain confidential.

2. Information about a student’s accommodations or working with SAS can be disclosed to staff, administration and faculty who have an academic “need to know”.

3. What is a “Need to Know” basis? As a rule, faculty and staff need to know what accommodations are appropriate and necessary to meet the student's disability related needs. However, in some instances, a faculty or staff person may request a more in-depth discussion to better facilitate the student’s learning or provide support for the student. In that case, SAS may have conversations with staff or faculty members without student consent as long as disability information is not disclosed.

The law requires release of otherwise confidential information in the following circumstances:
- if the student indicates intention to harm others, or harm self.
- if the student reports or describes any physical abuse, neglect, or sexual abuse of children or vulnerable adults within the last three years. (This includes the occurrence of abuse or neglect if they were under the age of eighteen at the time of the abuse).
- if the student reports the use of an illegal drug for non-medical purposes during pregnancy.
- if the student reports or describes sexual exploitation by counseling or health care professionals.
- SAS can disclose specific information to parents under Minnesota State Law if the student is an immediate threat to themselves or others on campus.
- Title IX violations: SAS staff are mandatory reporters under Title IX, so any report of sexual harassment or misconduct done to or by the student must be reported.

IV. Reasonable Accommodations and Services:
Reasonable accommodations are modifications that eliminate as much as possible, physical or instructional barriers to learning encountered by the student with a disability.

- Accommodations are individualized and dependent on the nature of the specific disability or disabilities and supporting documentation. Concordia University, St Paul and specifically, Student Accessibility Services, reserves the right to determine reasonableness, and to also consider “equally effective” accommodations in lieu of requests that may be cost or administratively prohibitive.

- Reasonable accommodations are an interactive process between the student, CSP faculty and staff and SAS. Although we consider every request individually, physician recommendations/letters do not guarantee a specific accommodation.

- Accommodations are free for students. There is no cost and no indication on an academic record that accommodations have been implemented.

- Students are responsible for compliance with SAS and CSP policies and procedures, including stated deadlines and behavioral expectations.

Common reasonable accommodations/services: extensions of time in the testing environment, supplemental notes, alternative text materials, limited extensions for assignments, limited attendance flexibility (based on requirements of the course), modifications of residence life environments, allowance of service/ESA animals where other animals are restricted, interpreter services, route of travel modification/assistance.

Accommodations that are generally considered unreasonable: personal assistive devices (e.g., hearing aids, glasses, wheelchairs, walkers), personal aides, private tutoring outside the scope of CSP’s tutoring/writing services, modification of exams to only one format (e.g., oral only exams for all courses), reducing assignments or course expectations, computers or specific computing hardware. SAS cannot waive course attendance or assignments. Any request that would fundamentally alter, result in administrative or undue financial burden is also not considered reasonable.

For each accommodation or service, there are specific procedures and timelines. Specifics on policies are provided to students during the intake process and multiple times throughout the semester.

SAS Testing Policies and Procedures are provided to students with their accommodation plan.

Link to testing request form and important deadlines noted here:

https://docs.google.com/a/csp.edu/forms/d/1BYBKd7V6J0t8O1AVuiycGRFkSqJGmokWcMOQqU1aJY/edit

- TWO full school days’ notice for most daytime, traditional proctored exams
- THREE full school day notice for evening exams
- ONE WEEK’S NOTICE: Final exams, Senior Outcome Exams, CLEP testing,

SAS reserves the right to decline any testing requests for failure to follow SAS policies.

V. Retroactive Accommodations (Accommodations Requested “After the Fact”) or Accommodations Requested Late in a Course or Program:

It is a student’s right not to disclose if they have disability or utilize accommodations. If a student: 1) decides not to disclose a disability or utilize accommodations 2) does not give permission for the VISA to be sent 3) is diagnosed after completing work that does not accurately reflect his/her ability, accommodations are not required to be given after the fact (retroactively). Therefore, asking to have flexibility for missed assignments or attendance at the end of a semester may not be possible.

The student in this situation is encouraged to take steps to ensure accommodations are in place for future assignments or activities by contacting Student Accessibility Services. The student should also contact faculty to initiate the accommodations process if the students is registered with SAS but have not followed up on their accommodation plan until late in the semester.
It is always the responsibility of the student to both request accommodations in a timely way and ensure notification to instructors has been made early in a course.

VI. Waivers, Modifications or Course Substitutions Due to Disability:

The Rehabilitation Act 504 requires post-secondary institutions to make modifications to academic requirements to ensure that such requirements do not discriminate against qualified students with disabilities. Academic requirements that are essential to programs, directly related licensing requirement, or if making modifications would fundamentally alter nature of the program are not required. (AHEAD, 2010).

Students with disabilities who are requesting waiver, course substitution or modification to the program due to disability related impact should:

1) Meet with the Director of Student Accessibility Services for specific steps and timelines.
2) Petition the request through the course substitution request form.
3) Provide appropriate and recent documentation from a care provider who can appropriately provide diagnosis, supporting the need for the course substitution.

Due to accreditation requirements or State of MN technical standards for specific programs, not all waivers/substitution requests can be granted. CSP also reserves the right to offer equally effective accommodations or substitutions in lieu of complete waivers or course substitutions.

The Director of Student Accessibility Services may need to work with Advising or other administrators in the determination of appropriate modifications, which may require disclosure of confidential information/documentation. Students will be notified of this need.

SAS staff does not make final decisions on requests for modifications or waivers, these are determined by the Course Substitution Committee made up of staff and faculty members.

VII. Medical or Compassionate Late Withdraw/Course Modification Requests:

In some cases, due to severe or sudden disability or an unavoidable and traumatic life event the student may ask for course modification or need to withdraw from classes if they are not keeping within course expectations. In most cases, students are encouraged and advised to withdraw, if required, within the timelines set forth by CSP policies.

Late withdraws (after the withdraw deadline) are intended for unavoidable medical or traumatic life circumstances that impacted the student’s ability to be effective in courses and withdraw on time. In most cases, late withdraws will require the student to withdraw from all courses.

Verification is required to support the need for these requests either through documentation or other evidence.

Requesting a Late Withdraw/Course Modification for Medical or Compassionate Reasons:

1) Student should notify SAS or Advising of their needs. This includes athletes who have been substantially injured and may be out for a considerable period of time, even if they are expected to recover.
2) Staff will first contact instructors or department chairs to determine if reasonable modifications can be to essential components of a course or program. Alternative options may also be considered, but are not required.
3) Medical/Compassionate Withdraw:
4) If it is determined that too much class time or homework will be missed (or if it’s late in the term), medical withdraws for significant disability related concerns may be advised.
5) Student should contact Financial Aid advisor or other program advisors to determine effect of a late withdraw before completing the petition form.
6) Student completes/provides:
a. General Petition form (goes to Registrar's Office) stating the withdraw request for medical reasons:
http://registrar.csp.edu/general-petition-form/

b. Documentation from a care provider or other evidence by the last day of the classes to SAS staff or the registrar directly.

6) Documentation outlines the a) reasons for withdraw and b) why the student was unable meet standard timelines for that withdraw (e.g., hospitalization, chronic condition that rapidly worsened, death in the family, etc.).

7) Late withdraws are typically only granted for one semester. CSP reserves the right to decline additional late withdraw requests, or to decline re-admission to a student multiple withdraw request have been granted.

Returning from a Late Withdraw:

1) Student re-applies for admission if more than one semester has passed.
2) Student provides documentation from a care provider to SAS or Registrar indicating the student able to return and any limitations or accommodations. (This may be waived I the case of a compassionate withdraw, but student should still contact SAS staff or the Registrar).
3) If the timeline between when a student is medically withdrawn and able to return is very short (less than a few weeks), CSP reserves the right to decline a return for the next semester/course. These determinations are made on a case by case basis and the reason for the initial request.
4) A “Hold” is placed on the student’s account until authorization is received either by the Registrar or SAS offices that the student is cleared to return.
5) Students may have a financial aid hold on their account, and will need to work with FA advisors/office. In some cases, the Financial Aid office may require additional information in keeping with federal guidelines.
6) Students who are part of military or other specific programs (e.g. NCAA) will also need to check with advisors/coaches on specifics for their program.

VIII. In-Progress Requests for Students with Disabilities:

In-Progress requests follow the same policies and procedures for all students requesting extensions. In-Progress requests are intended not as a regular modification to classes, but for instances that are unavoidable. Faculty have to agree to in progress grades-it is not a legally required accommodation.

In- progress grades are generally offered for 2-4 weeks (traditional) and 1-2 week (online) and are not intended to extend a course indefinitely and are required to be requested prior to grades being turned in by a faculty member.

Any requests for In Progress Grades must be made through the Registrar’s office:

IX. Residence Life and Housing Accommodations:

Concordia is committed to providing equal access for students with disabilities that substantially limit a major life activity and significantly affect living arrangements. Students are responsible to provide this information to Student Accessibility Services (SAS) and Residence Life by stated deadlines. Residence Life and SAS staff review all requests individually and determine any possible configurations/alternatives on a case by case basis. Final decisions are based on a variety of factors including impact of disability and possible alternatives.

Students who are unable to meet the deadlines indicated for housing accommodation requests may be charged additional fees for specific room configurations.

Unique Considerations:

- The availability of single rooms is limited and therefore, granted infrequently. We attempt to make thoughtful roommate matches instead of separating students. In addition, single rooms are granted based on a care providers requirement that the student is unable to effectively live in a roommate set up (e.g., significant cognitive/mental health issues, physical limitations visual or service animal needs.)

- Fully accessible housing units are also limited; students with mobility impairments should discuss their options with SAS very early in the admissions process. Accessible units are often filled many months prior to housing deadlines and cannot be guaranteed, although we do make every reasonable effort to provide accommodations.

- Service Animals/Assistive or Support Animals in Residence Life Environments: Please meet with SAS staff or the link below regarding policies and procedures for service and other assistive/support animals in Residence Life environments animals. Please note that timelines for requesting assistive animals do apply.

- Students with asthma or other breathing issues that rise to a significant and disabling level should be aware that most rooms are carpeted, and completely “allergen free rooms” cannot be guaranteed, but we will assist in modifications.

- Requests to be removed from meal plans: we make every attempt to keep students on meal plans even with allergies or sensitivities to remain an active part of the Student Life Center. Sodexo has a dietician that students can work with to ensure their food restrictions are met. SAS staff is happy to assist with coordinating a meeting.

Steps for Housing Accommodations:

1. Complete the Residence Life Housing ACCOMMODATION form.
2. Complete the GENERAL Residence Life/Housing Application (by stated deadlines)
3. Submit deposit for housing (by deadline).

These steps must be completed prior to housing accommodations being considered.

DEADLINES TO SUBMIT HOUSING ACCOMMODATION REQUESTS TO STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES:

SUMMER SESSION: APRIL 15
FALL SEMESTER: APRIL 30 (LATE REQUESTS MAY RESULT IN A UPCHARGE).
SPRING SEMESTER: NOVEMBER 15

IX. Admissions, Disqualification Appeals, Re-Admission:

Student Accessibility Services cannot make recommendations for students on admittance, re-admissions or appeal decisions (for example, writing letters of support for admission or re-admission). Neutrality is maintained to order to ensure un-biased and equal process in providing on-going accommodation for all students. Student Accessibility can only confirm the existence of documented disability, interaction with our office and any reasonable accommodations with student permission.

X. Grievance Procedures for Students with Access Concerns

Student Accessibility Services works with students with disabilities to resolve disagreements regarding academic adjustments or campus access with University faculty or staff. There are both formal and information processes that SAS can assist. A student may at any time take a disability-related grievance first to Student Accessibility Services and then to the Dean of Diversity regarding an ADA/Section 504 Compliance complaint, or to contact Off Campus Resources directly. Students are not required to exhaust internal administrative processes in order to file an external complaint. CSP is prohibited from any form of retaliation against a student with a disability.

In situations where the University believes that emergency or medical assessment and/or intervention is required, it is the student’s responsibility to pay for any charges related to the assessment or intervention (including, but not limited to hospitalization, transportation, follow up assessments/care and treatment).

B. Students who may need assistance in an emergency evacuation due to medication, anxiety, or injury must notify the Residence Life Professional for accommodations.

3. Down Payment. Each resident must annually submit a $125 housing down payment ($50 down payment for summer). The down payment will be applied to the student account for the first semester of housing. Housing assignments will not be made without a down payment.

6. Personal preference, taste and economic status are not criteria for modifying this agreement. These issues are addressed through the Student Policies Committee, the Food Committee and the Financial Aid office. The resident remains bound by this agreement for charges until a modification has been approved in writing.

7. A Room or Apartment Condition Report is to be completed by the resident and approved by the RA on the first day of occupancy. The Report is used in “checking out” a resident at the end of occupancy under the direction of the Residence Life staff. Damage to the room, apartment, or its equipment subsequent to moving out will be charged to the room occupant(s). Residents are also responsible for checking out with an RA, cleaning the room/apartment, and removing all trash. Failure to do so will result in fines. Any abandoned items will be disposed of and the resident may be charged a disposal fee. Final damage and cleaning fines will be made by the Residence Life Professional.

8. Keys and card access are available on the first day of occupancy. Keys are the property of the University and must be returned to the designated location (may vary) on the last day of approved occupancy. Residents must present a photo ID in order for keys to be released. Residents who lose or have their keys or University ID stolen must report the loss to Card Services and/or Security within 48 hours. Failure to report lost or stolen keys or University ID may result in disciplinary action. Additionally, the resident will be subject to a core change charge and a key and/or ID replacement processing charge. Residents who return keys after the announced deadline are subject to a fine and will be responsible for any re-keying charges. The duplication of keys is prohibited. Possession of unauthorized keys or card access and/or the sharing of keys, University ID and card access is forbidden and will result in disciplinary action.

Residents are to carry their Student ID with them at all times. Residents who lock themselves out of their room must contact their RA. Lock-outs will result in a $5 charge to your student account and may result in additional disciplinary sanctions and/or fines.

9. In accordance with University policy, first and second year students are required to live in university-owned housing. First- and second-year is defined as the first and second full-time academic year in which the student enrolls. PSEO does not count towards full-time enrollment. A petition form must be filled out by any first- or second-year student not wishing to live on-campus. Exceptions to this policy include enrollment in less than 12 credits, living with parent/guardian, 21+ years of age, married, or having children. Petitions can be found in the Student Life Office.

10. The resident agrees to meet the deadline for payment of all fees due the University as specified in the Catalog and/or on billings.

11. The resident agrees to abide by all University policies, rules and regulations as outlined in the Student Policies Handbook. Residential students should specifically note that:

a. smoking (tobacco, narcotics, and synthetics, vaporizers, e-cigarettes) is not allowed in any residence hall. This applies to all interior space including rooms, lounges, corridors, and stairwells;

b. alcohol, narcotics, and controlled substances are prohibited. Alcohol is permitted in Holst Hall on a privilege basis. Empty alcohol containers are not allowed in any residence hall, even when used for decorations. See the Student Policies Handbook for more information and the full Alcohol Policy.

c. possession of firearms or other weapons*, explosives, fireworks or dangerous chemicals on University premises is prohibited.

*Weapons include, but are not limited to, lasers, stun guns, pellet guns, air soft guns, and/or any knife (other than an ordinary pocketknife carried in a closed position, with a blade of three inches or less or cutlery of a reasonable size, when used in a kitchen or other food preparation).

12. Guests of the opposite gender may be invited into residence hall rooms only within established visitation hours for that hall. Visitation hours for Luther and Wollaeger Halls and Hyatt Village are 10 a.m. – 12 midnight Sunday-Thursday and 10 a.m. – 1 a.m. Friday-Saturday. Holst Hall does not have set visitation hours; however, guests of the opposite gender are not allowed to spend the night.

13. In Luther and Wollaeger Halls and Hyatt Village in-room resident use of sound systems, televisions, coffee pots, small refrigerators (4 cu. ft. or less) and the like is permitted. The use of refrigerators larger than 4 cu. ft., electric heaters, microwave ovens, toaster ovens, hot plates, grilling machines, window air conditioning units and the like are not permitted. The University provides microwave ovens for student use. St. Paul city ordinances prohibit food preparation in residence hall sleeping rooms.

Holst Hall apartments are furnished with a stove, microwave oven and refrigerator. Cooking is permitted in the kitchen area of Holst Hall, and cooking appliances such as toasters may be used in the kitchens. Students responsible for activation of fire safety systems due to negligent cooking and or negligent use of kitchen appliances will be subject to judicial consequences. Personal refrigerators, electric heaters and hot plates are not permitted in Holst Hall.

All appliances should be turned off or unplugged when not in use.

14. The University provides each resident with a bed, desk, desk chair, closet and dresser space, and the room with window coverings. In addition, Holst Hall apartments are provided with living room furniture, dining table and chairs. Furnishings are not to be removed from the room or apartment in any residence hall.

15. The resident will furnish all bed linens (extra-long twin), personal towels, blankets, and pillows.

16. The resident agrees to keep the room clean and tastefully decorated. Equipment and furnishings must be kept in good repair. Students should clean up after themselves in the common areas of the building. Garbage and refuse must be promptly taken by the resident to the proper receptacle designated for that purpose. Leaving garbage in the hallway or other common areas may result in an individual or collective fine or other sanctions. Personal trash and recycling should be taken outside to the appropriate receptacle. No painting or wall repair is to be done. Tape and/or nails should not be used to hang pictures. Decorations and other items may not be hung from the suspended ceiling or sprinkler heads.

17. The resident may not keep or bring pets other than fish anywhere in the residence hall. Aquariums may be no larger than 10 gallons. Modifications to this policy for individuals requiring the use of a service animal will be considered on a case by case basis. Please contact Student Accessibility Services.

18. Room changes cannot take place without the prior approval of the Residence Life Professional. Changes made without the proper authorization will result in disciplinary action and those involved may be required to move back to their assigned room.

19. The resident must take part in all fire drills and severe weather drills and must not tamper with or disable any fire safety equipment. Such equipment includes but is not limited to smoke detectors, carbon monoxide detectors, fire extinguishers, exit signs, door closers and sprinkling systems. Tampering with or disabling fire equipment will result in judicial sanction.

20. The resident is expected to attend routine and special meetings called by the RA and is encouraged to take part in the social, recreational, and devotional activities arranged for members of the living unit.

21. If a student is hospitalized for any reason (illness, surgery, mental health, injury, etc) a release to come back to campus and class is requested from the doctor. It is the student’s responsibility to turn in the form.

22. All residents are expected to check-out in person with an RA. All personal belongings should be out of the room and the room should be clean. Failure to follow check-out guidelines will result in an improper check-out fine of $50. Any personal belongings left in the room will be disposed of and the resident may be charged a disposal fee. Residents will also be charged a cleaning fee if the room is not clean. Damages that cannot be assessed to one person will be split amongst all roommates.
23. Screens and glass inserts are not to be removed from windows.

24. The University lounge and common area furniture are for the use of all residents. Residents may not move furniture from a lounge area to his or her room.

25. Residents are responsible for their guests and their actions. Guests are to be escorted by a host resident at all times. A guest is any person not assigned to live in the room or apartment. Roommate(s) must agree with the guest being in the room.

In accordance with St. Paul fire code, the total number of people allowed in each residence hall room:
Hyatt Village – 6 (double)
Luther Hall – 6 (double)
Wollaeger Hall – 6 (double); 9 (triple)
Holst Hall – 12 (4-bedroom); 6 (2-bedroom); 3 (studio)

26. Opposite gender guests are not permitted to stay over-night in the residence halls. The resident is to inform the RA if he/she intends to host a guest. Not more than two guests may stay up to three consecutive nights, or a total of 10 days per semester. Roommate(s) must approve of the guest staying over.

27. Appropriate dress is to be worn at all times in residence halls common areas. These areas include lounges, stairwells, entryways, laundry rooms, etc. Inappropriate dress is such that the attire could be considered provocative or would make others uncomfortable in your presence.

28. Guests are not permitted to use the shower in the bathroom of any room, suite, apartment, or building occupied by students of the opposite gender. Guests of the opposite gender visiting Luther and Wollaeger Halls should use the designated guest bathroom as they are not permitted to use the designated resident bathroom.

29. In case of prolonged absence from the residence hall, with approval in advance from the Residence Life Professional, a pro-rated weekly charge may be assessed, and appropriate credit authorized. The amount of credit is determined by the Residence Life Professional.

30. Unusual furnishings and modifications to the room (lofts, room dividers) must be approved by the Residence Life Professional. The University reserves the right to make the final determination regarding whether or not such modifications are appropriate, and if determined inappropriate, the resident will be required to remove such furnishings and modifications. No part of the building other than the floor may be used for structural support of a loft.

31. Entry and Search of Rooms

The University recognizes residents’ desire for privacy, particularly in the context of their living situation, and will do all it can to protect and guarantee their privacy. However, the University’s designated staff member reserves the right to enter a resident’s room at any time for the following purposes:

a. To determine compliance with all relevant health and safety regulations (e.g. fire alarms, lock downs, health and safety checks, etc.),
b. To provide cleaning and/or pest control,
c. To conduct an inventory of or search for missing University property,
d. To silence unattended loud alarms and music,
e. Where there is an indication of danger to life, health, and/or property,
f. Where there is a reasonable suspicion to believe that a violation of University policies is occurring,
g. To perform maintenance work. For most maintenance concerns, prior notice will be given whenever possible.
A room search by a designated staff member is possible but rare. For such a search to take place, the conditions for room entry must exist, and permission from the Residence Life Professional or a designee must be obtained. Items that violate university or housing regulations may be confiscated. A room search by law enforcement officials must be accomplished through the use of a valid search warrant, or the student may sign a release (or give verbal permission) to allow the room to be searched by law enforcement.

Failure to admit authorized individuals investigating probable violations in a timely manner obstructs the University’s attempt to provide an orderly, safe living environment and is considered a serious breach of this agreement.

32. The University accepts no responsibility for personal items which may be lost, stolen, or damaged (including normal wear and tear). The University urges the resident to arrange for adequate insurance of personal property.

33. The University holds residents responsible for University property entrusted to their individual and collective care. Residents will be charged, individually when identifiable, or collectively in the alternative, for excessive cleaning, replacement or repair of University property lost, stolen, or damaged.

34. While every effort will be made to grant student preferences for roommate, hall, and room choices, the University reserves the right to make the final determinations. The University reserves the right to reassign if deemed necessary or desirable.

35. If space is available, Luther and Wollaeger Halls and Hyatt Village residents may request a single room. An additional charge of $1175 is assessed per semester to those who request and are granted a single room.

There are a limited number of studio and two-bedroom apartments available in Holst Hall. An additional charge of $1175 is assessed per semester to those whose request is granted. Interested residents should request the room at the time of application. Residents who request but are not assigned a studio or two-bedroom apartment may be placed on a waiting list.

36. If one resident vacates a room, the remaining resident agrees to accept another roommate, or to move to another room, if requested. The resident may request to remain in his or her room without a roommate by paying the additional charge for a single room.

37. Factors of race, color, or national origin will not be considered in making hall, room, or roommate assignments.

38. Requests for specifically named roommates must be reciprocal and received before the room assignment has been made.

39. Violation of any University policy or regulation, or any conduct deemed to be such as to require removal (e.g. danger to self or others) of the resident from the residence hall, shall be grounds for the termination of this agreement and could also lead to disciplinary action, including the loss of rights and privileges (e.g., visitation rights), disciplinary probation, and/or the loss of the privilege of living in University housing.

40. Residence halls are for residential purposes only. Residents may not conduct business or other activities inconsistent with this purpose.

- Students should not use their CSP email address or residence hall apartment information for conducting business. CSP should in no way be mentioned with the business.
- Students may not sublet their residence hall room.
- Students should not host or conduct meetings, gatherings, or other means of selling product out of a residence hall room/apartment.
- Students should only store items in their room as long as they have the OK of their roommate(s) and the product does not take up a large portion of the common area(s) in the room/apartment.
- If students wish to host or conduct meetings, gatherings, or other means of selling product they should request the reservation of a room on campus using the footprints application on the portal page.

41. For fire safety reasons halogen lamps, candles and incense are not permitted.

42. In accordance with St. Paul city ordinance, any adapter or power strip used must be both UL approved and surge protected. Connecting power strips together is prohibited. Only one adapter may be plugged in per outlet.

43. The University provides cable television and wireless internet.

44. ‘Sports’ (including but not limited to throwing Frisbee, football, kicking soccer ball, playing hockey, riding bike, skateboarding, using drones, hoverboards, etc.) may not be played inside a residence hall (rooms, stairways, hallways, lounges, etc.). In addition, it is against University policy to store hoverboards on campus.

45. Student storage space is not available in the residence halls.

46. The resident is not to permit anyone into the residence hall unless that person is his/her guest.

47. Residents are not allowed to prop open entry or wing doors. Students may choose to prop their residence hall room door, but should not leave it unattended.

48. The use of live or resin-bearing Christmas trees or wreaths is not permitted in the residence halls. Christmas/holiday lights may only be used from November 1st until the halls close for Christmas break, may not be strung over ceiling grids or hung from the ceiling, and must be turned off when unattended. Decorations may not cover exit or emergency signs, or fire extinguishers. All Christmas decorations must be taken down before the Christmas break. No other holiday or decorative (ropes, strands, etc.) lights may be used at other times throughout the year.

49. Quiet hours for all halls are Sunday – Thursday 10 p.m. – 9 a.m. and Friday-Saturday 12 midnight – 10 a.m. During these hours music, voices, etc are to be contained within the room or apartment. Courtesy hours are always in place and noise levels need to be kept at a reasonable level.

50. Bicycles may only be stored in student rooms or on provided racks. Bicycles may not be left in common areas or chained to stairwells, lights poles and the like.

51. Ceilings may not be tampered with. Residents may not hang anything from ceilings in any Residence Hall. Drop ceiling tiles should not be moved for any reason.

52. Hookahs and are not permitted in the Residence Halls. No smoking of any kind is allowed in the Residence Halls. See the University Smoking Policy for more information.

53. For information about Concordia’s food service contract please check the Dining Services website for up-to-date schedules and options. http://www.cspdining.com

ALCOHOL IN RESIDENCE HALLS

Each member of the University community must make a personal decision whether or not to drink alcohol. The choice not to drink is an entirely acceptable one. The choice to drink carries with it the obligation to drink responsibly. The University has clear guidelines and definitions for students regarding alcohol consumption. In Holst Hall and the campus apartments, the privileges to drink are clearly defined by the state and federal laws regarding the consumption of alcohol and the University’s alcohol policies. Luther Hall, Wollaeger Hall, and Hyatt Village are “dry” halls, meaning no alcohol is allowed in the hall despite the age of the resident. Residents of Holst Hall and apartment communities may have alcohol in their rooms on a privilege basis. Any Concordia student 21 years of age or older may drink in Holst Hall or apartment communities, however, s/he must follow Concordia’s Alcohol Policy and fill out the application and be approved for alcohol privileges.

Concordia University complies with the laws of the State of Minnesota. Important parts are those summarized below:

- No person may sell, furnish, or give any alcoholic beverage to a person under the age of 21, and no person under the age of 21 may purchase alcoholic beverages. (Reference: Minnesota Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Section 25658)
- It is unlawful for a person under the age of 21 to possess alcoholic beverages on any street or highway or in any public place or in any place open to public view. (Reference: Minnesota Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, Section 25662)

The University further specifies:

a. Eligible Act – All residents and their guests must be 21 years of age to possess, transport, store, or consume alcohol. Storage of alcohol in a room where a minor resides is prohibited.
   1. Students wishing to receive alcohol privileges must successfully complete AlcoholEdu and a quiz on CSP’s alcohol policy. Once both pieces are successfully completed, the resident will be added to the privilege list.
   2. Students who have successfully completed AlcoholEdu within 12 months of renewal, will not need to retake AlcoholEdu. The student will need to complete the quiz on CSP’s policy.

A “wet” room is defined as any room in which all residents of that apartment are of legal drinking age and have received on-campus alcohol privileges. Any Concordia student in the room must also have alcohol privileges. All those present must adhere to policies governing noise and other common courtesies. The apartment door must be closed and alcohol must be consumed in a manner that does not disturb surrounding residents’ rooms. Individual residents are responsible for their own actions as well as the actions of their guest(s).

g. Irresponsible Drinking and Excessive Use – Irresponsible drinking on or off campus, especially when it directly affects the individual and members of the Concordia University community, will not be tolerated. Individuals should not “protect” severely intoxicated individuals from coming to the attention of University staff or emergency personnel. A person or group who fails to seek assistance for an individual suffering from severe intoxication may be subject to judicial action.

k. Collections/Displays – Alcohol container collections and/or displays (empty or unopened) are not permitted.

D. If there are damages, restitution must be made.

E. Violations shall be reviewed by the Judicial Advisor and will be referred to the judicial officer.

F. Parents of dependent students may be contacted as a result of the student’s breach of alcohol policies.

G. RAs can and are willing to provide information and resources regarding the impact of using either legal chemicals or controlled substances.
BREAK PERIODS

The schedule of the opening and closing dates for the residence halls and the start and stop dates for food service are published annually on the dining services website. Luther and Wollaeger Halls and Hyatt Village close for breaks of more than one week during the academic year. During the time the halls are closed, card access for residents is de-activated and residents will not be able to enter the hall. Residents of Holst Hall are permitted to stay in their apartment. These residents must sign-up for break housing.

Residents who wish to stay on campus for part or all of a break period when the halls are open must register their intent to stay with the Residence Life staff.

EARLY RETURN OR ARRIVAL

Students are not permitted to move into campus housing earlier than the dates and times published in the housing agreement and assignment letters for new and returning students. Access to rooms is restricted at certain times and students are not to be in any building where they are not authorized.

If the Residence Life Manager determines that it is in the best interest of the University that the student returns early, there is no additional charge or assessment to the student who stays in his or her regular room. If the Residence Life Manager determines that the early return is for the student's preference or convenience, there will be an appropriate charge. All rules, policies and guidelines remain fully in force during non-academic periods.

SALES AND SOLICITATION

Entrance to residence halls is restricted to residents and their guests. Solicitation in University housing is forbidden, unless approved by the Residence Life Manager.

WEEKENDS

Residential students leaving for a weekend should inform the RA in case contacts must be made in an emergency.

MISSING STUDENT POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to establish procedures for the University's response to reports of a missing student, as required by the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008. This policy applies to students who reside in University operated residence halls, apartment building and houses.

For purposes of this policy it is important to define "missing student". A student may be considered to be a "missing student" if the person's absence is contrary to his/her usual pattern of behavior and unusual circumstances may have caused the absence. Such circumstances could include a reasonable/reliable report or suspicion that the missing student may be endangered. Examples include, but are not limited to, possible victim of foul play, expression of suicidal thoughts, alcohol or other drug abuse, a life-threatening situation, or recent contact with persons who may endanger the student's welfare.

A. Procedures for designation of emergency contact information

1. Students age 18 and above and emancipated minors.

Residential students will be given the opportunity upon check-in to a University operated residence hall/apartment/house, to designate an individual or individuals to be the emergency contact for the student. In addition, all students are required to update their emergency contact information each semester. The most current emergency contact will be used. This emergency contact will be contacted by the University no more than 24 hours after the time that the student is determined to be missing in accordance with the procedures set forth below.
2. Students under the age of 18.
In the event a student who is not emancipated is determined to be missing pursuant to the procedures set forth below, the University is required to notify a custodial parent or guardian no more than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing in accordance with the procedures set forth below.

B. Official notification procedures for missing students
1. Any individual who has information that a student may be missing must notify the Security Department as soon as possible. Note: In order to avoid jurisdictional conflicts when an off-campus and/or commuter student is believed to be missing, the Security Department will immediately notify local law enforcement authorities. The Security Department will assist external authorities with these investigations as requested.

2. The Security Department will work with campus offices, the reporting person(s) and the student’s acquaintances to gather all essential information about the student (i.e. description, clothes last worn, where student might be, who student might be with, vehicle description, information about the student’s physical and mental well-being, an up-to-date photograph, class schedule, etc.). Appropriate campus staff will be notified to aid in the search for the student.

3. If the above actions are unsuccessful in locating the student or it is apparent immediately that the student may be endangered (e.g., witnessed abduction), the Security Department will contact the appropriate local law enforcement agency to report the student as a missing person and the local law enforcement agency will take charge of the investigation.

4. No later than 24 hours after determining that a student is missing, the Dean of Students, or designee, will notify the emergency contact (for students 18 and over) or the parent/guardian (for students under the age of 18) that the student is believed to be missing.

5. For missing students who are 18 years of age or older, and did not designate an individual to be contacted, the Dean of Students will act in accordance with FERPA and Minnesota Government Data Privacy guidelines with regard to contacting a parent/guardian.

C. Campus communications about missing students
In cases involving missing persons, law enforcement personnel are trained to provide information to the media in a manner designed to elicit public assistance in the search for a missing person. Therefore, all communications regarding missing students will be handled by outside law enforcement authorities, who may consult with the University Office. All inquiries to the University regarding missing students, or information provided to any individual at the University about a missing student, shall be referred to the Media Relations Office, who shall refer such inquiries and information to law enforcement authorities. Prior to providing the University community with any information about a missing student, the University Crisis Response Team will strive to ensure that communications comply with FERPA and Minnesota Government Data Privacy guidelines and do not hinder the investigation.

APARTMENT HOUSING: MARRIED STUDENTS & FAMILIES

A limited number of apartment units are available for married students and students with families. Priority is given on the basis of the date the housing application is received. Charges for housing are posted for each academic term to the student's account. All utilities, except telephone, internet and cable TV, are included in the apartment housing assessment. Apartment residents provide their own furnishings, a $500 deposit is due at the time of signing of the apartment housing agreement. Keys to apartments are not issued until the student has signed an apartment housing agreement and met financial obligations. The apartment housing agreement obligates the resident for the entire academic year. The deposit is forfeited if the agreement is cancelled prior to the end of the agreement. Contact Sharon Schewe at schewe@csp.edu for more information.

If the appeal is granted, the ticket may be reduced or voided.

When misconduct does occur, the University will make every effort to address each situation individually. In so doing, issues of frequency, attitude and circumstance will be considered with the intent of holding each individual personally responsible for his or her individual actions. The goal is to work with students individually in order to design interventions that will promote growth and healing.

1. Sanctions: One or more of the following sanctions may be imposed upon any student found to have violated the Student Code. The University holds the right to impose sanctions not listed below at the discretion of the Judicial Officer. For life and safety related concerns, referrals may be assigned in conjunction with University Sanctions.
   a. Warnings: Warnings will be issued in cases of minor misconduct or in cases of unique circumstance. Warnings may include contractual sanctions that would only be enforced if the student repeats the misconduct.
   b. Fines: As a general rule, fines will be used as the standard for disciplinary sanctions. However, in cases of gross and/or repeated misconduct, the University reserves the right to use additional disciplinary sanctions.
   c. Restitution: Students should expect to be held financially accountable for the cleaning, repair and/or replacement of lost, damaged or stolen property. Further, compensation for physical injury may be included in the sanctioning process.
   d. Community Service: The goal of community service is twofold: to provide meaningful service to the local community and to allow the student to build a stronger sense of self through the building of relationships, integrity and a sense of achievement. The University Judicial Officer may assign community service hours to be completed on or off campus.
   e. Alcohol Education: Students violating the University alcohol policy may be required to attend an approved alcohol education class. The class should address issues of alcohol abuse, alcoholism, family systems, responsible drinking and sources of help for individuals with drinking problems.
   f. Educational Sanctions: Students may be required to perform community service, write a paper, complete an online educational course, or any other activity deemed appropriate for the violation.
   g. Hall Restriction: The goal is to help students respect their visitation privileges. Students on hall restriction will not be allowed to meet with members of the opposite sex in residence hall rooms.
   h. Disciplinary Probation: Disciplinary probation is a strong warning that any further violation of the Student Conduct Code may result in suspension or expulsion from the residence halls and/or the University. Generally, students who are expelled from the residential halls and/or placed on University probation will not be allowed to publicly represent the University (such as in athletics, music, drama, or student government). As the University believes that extra-curricular activities are a valuable component of a university education, students may be allowed to appeal to the Judicial Officer requesting that community service hours be exchanged for the opportunity to represent the University.

i. Residence Hall Suspension and Expulsion: Students persisting in misconduct within the residence halls, or in misconduct directly related to life in the residence halls, may be suspended or expelled from the residence hall. A suspension will consist of being removed from the residence hall for a specific period, after which the student may reapply for admittance to the residence hall. Expulsion from the residence halls is permanent.

j. Suspension from the University: Students suspended from the University will not be allowed to attend class or participate as a Concordia student in any capacity for a determined period of time. Conditions for readmission may be specified.

k. Expulsion from the University: Students expelled from the University will not be allowed to attend class or participate as a Concordia student in any capacity. University expulsion is permanent.

l. Disciplinary Hold: Disciplinary holds are used exclusively in cases when students have not completed previously assigned sanctions. When students do not complete sanctions on time, a disciplinary hold will be placed on their student account. This hold will prevent the student from registering for class, obtaining grade reports and receiving a student or official copy of their transcript. Disciplinary holds are set and lifted by the Judicial Officer. Holds will be lifted when students complete assigned disciplinary sanctions or develop a written contract with the Judicial Officer outlining when and how sanctions will be completed.

2. Student Records: the University maintains two separate sets of records regarding student misconduct.

a. Academic Records: Other than expulsion or suspension longer than 30 days from the University (Disciplinary Review, Article IV B.1.j-l), disciplinary sanctions will not be part of the student's permanent academic record. Academic records are maintained by the University Registrar.

b. Disciplinary Records: The University maintains a file in the office of Judicial Affairs for each person found to be responsible for a Code of Conduct violation. Judicial Affairs may, under FERPA exception, disclose information related to student conduct records to Concordia University officials with legitimate educational interests. The Office of judicial Affairs may, at the student's request, reveal the contents to other University departments, employers, schools and others. The Judicial Officer is required to provide access to a student’s file when subpoenaed by a court or federal agency, or as otherwise required by law.

c. A student wishing to view his or her conduct file should contact the Office of Judicial Affairs to schedule an appointment. Federal Law requires that the requested file be reviewed and information on any other student be redacted. The requesting student will be permitted to view his or her prepared file, but will not be allowed to copy, take pictures, or otherwise record the documents. This request will be fulfilled within 45 days of the written request. Student Judicial files are normally kept for seven (7) years.

3. The following sanctions may be imposed upon student groups or organizations:

a. Sanctions listed in Disciplinary Review, Article IV.B.1, a-m, b. Deactivation for a specified period of time. Deactivation includes the loss of all privileges, including University recognition.

C. Appealing Decisions

1. Right to Appeal: Students have the right to request an appeal based on the criteria discussed below (Article IV C3 a-c). All requests for appeals must be made in writing and submitted to the Judicial Advisor within 72 hours of the decision. If a student chooses not to schedule and/or attend a hearing, a determination is made about his or her involvement without his or her input, and the student’s right to appeal is forfeited. Students are allowed one appeal per case, and each case can be only appealed once.

2. Appeal Process:

a. A Request for Appeal is made in writing to the Judicial Advisor within 72 hours.
b. Request for Appeal is evaluated on the merits of criteria listed below (Article IV C3 a-c) by the Judicial Advisor.
c. Administrative Appeals Board evaluates the appeal and makes final decision on the appeal.
d. Decision on the appeal is communicated with those parties involved.
e. Decisions of the Administrative Appeals Board are final.

3. Reviewing Appeals: Appeals will be reviewed on the following basis:
   a. That the decision was made contrary to existing University policy or sanctions are outside parameter of violation,
   b. That information used to reach a decision was incomplete or inaccurate, and/or
   c. That circumstances beyond the control of the student prevented the student from responding to the allegation in a timely manner.

D. Interim Suspension

In certain circumstances, the Judicial Officer may impose a University or residence hall suspension prior to the hearing before a Judicial Body.

1. An interim suspension may be imposed only:
   a. to ensure the safety and well-being of members of the University community or preservation of University property;
   b. to ensure the student’s own physical or emotional safety and well-being;
   c. if the student poses a definite threat of disruption of the normal operations of the University;
   d. to allow the student to attend to legal matters outside the University.

2. During the interim suspension, students will be denied access to the residence halls and/or to the campus (including classes) and/or all other University activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible.

3. Decisions regarding an interim suspension are made by the Judicial Advisor and may be appealed only to the senior student life administrator.

UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY POLICIES

ANIMALS ON CAMPUS

The University recognizes the important role animals can play in the lives of employees and students. At the same time, certain animals (pets) are not appropriate to bring on campus and therefore, restricted. This policy addresses animals utilized for disability accommodation services as identified, established and defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADAAA) and the Fair Housing Act (which applies to Residence Life areas only). Service animals shall not be excluded from CSP campus, programs or activities.

For more information on policies or procedures, please contact Student Accessibility Services: SAS@csp.edu.

I. Definitions:

Service Animal: Service animal means a dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability and is covered under the American’s with Disabilities Act. Other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained, are not service animals for the purposes of this definition. Dogs or other animals, whose sole purpose is to provide protection or emotional comfort, are not service animals under the act.

Emotional Support Animal (ESA): Animals that individuals with disabilities utilize for emotional support, well-being, or comfort. An emotional support animal is an animal that is necessary to afford a person with a disability an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling when there is an identifiable relationship between the person’s disability and the assistance the animal provides. This is established by appropriate documentation. Because they are not individually trained to perform work or tasks, support animals are not service animals and not covered under the ADA. Therefore, access to campus may be limited to specific (e.g., Residence Life) environments and are not automatically allowed the same access as service animals.

II. Policy Statement

Service animals are permitted at CSP without restriction. Individuals with disabilities, including visitors, who utilize service animals on campus grounds are encouraged to ensure animals are vaccinated and well behaved. If the need for the animal is not immediately clear, campus representatives are allowed to determine the following to allow the animal access:

1. Is the animal required because of a disability?
2. What work or task has the animal been trained to perform?

Students with service animals who request access to classes are strongly encouraged to affiliate with Student Accessibility Services to ensure space and effective in class accommodations are provided for the student and animal and to limit class disruption. Service animals may not reside in University Housing without notification through SAS.

Emotional Support Animals: Per the Fair Housing Act, CSP provides reasonable accommodations for an emotional support or assistance animal in residential living environments. Typically, an emotional support animal is prescribed to an individual with a disability by a healthcare or mental health professional and is an integral part of a person’s treatment process. Students are strongly encouraged to work through SAS regarding policies for emotional support animals.

CSP reserves the right to decline an emotional support animal or to ask additional questions regarding the therapeutic need for the animal if the nexus between the need for the animal and disability is not evident.

III. Handler’s Responsibilities: The handler is responsible for the care and supervision of his or her service animal or ESA. If the animal behaves in an unacceptable way and the person with a disability does not control the animal, CSP does not have to continue to allow the animal on its premises. Uncontrolled barking, jumping on other people, excessive damage to property or running away from the handler are examples of unacceptable behavior.
The ADA requires the animal to be under the control of the handler. This can occur using a harness, leash, or other tether. However, in cases where either the handler is unable to hold a tether because of a disability or its use would interfere with the service animal’s safe, effective performance of work or tasks, the service animal must be under the handler’s control by some other means, such as voice control. In classroom settings, the service animal cannot be disruptive to the operation of the class.

The handler is responsible for all cleaning, upkeep, care and any damage caused by the animal.

Animals can be restricted from environments that the CDC restricts.

The animal must be housebroken.

The animal should be vaccinated in accordance with state and local laws.

An entity may also assess the type, size, and weight of a miniature horse or other ESA determining whether or not it will be allowed access to the facility.

Animals that are illegal to own cannot qualify as either a service animal or an ESA for these purposes.

Any questions regarding the qualification of a service animal or ESA should be directed to Student Accessibility Services.

ALCOHOL CRIMES AND PENALTIES UNDER MINNESOTA LAW

The University is obligated by Minnesota statute to inform all individuals connected with the University how state and federal statutes deal with alcohol and controlled substances.

Minnesota has many statues that regulate and control the use and abuse of alcohol. In addition to Driving While under the Influence (DWI) laws, Minnesota has laws regulating the sale, purchase, possession and consumption of alcohol.

DWI Law

There are four DWI and Implied Consent packages that aim at preventing the operation of motor vehicles, boats, snowmobiles/all-terrain vehicles and aircraft by inebriated persons.

Elements of DWI Offense

Minnesota has one of the most comprehensive DWI statutes in the nation. The elements of the offense may be outlined as follows: It is a crime for any person to drive, operate, or be in physical control of a motor vehicle, within this state or upon the ice of any boundary water of this state, while the person is under the influence of alcohol, a controlled or hazardous substance, or a combination of the two, or the person has an “alcohol concentration” of 0.08 or more.

A. Driving, Operating, and Physical Control
   1. The statute does not prohibit only “driving” while under the influence, but extends to “operating” and “physical control” of the motor vehicle. While “driving” normally includes steering a self-propelled vehicle, “operating” includes a broader range of conduct, which includes starting motors, steering towed vehicles, etc. “Physical control” is broader yet, and applies to any person who places himself or herself in a position to either restrain a vehicle from being moved or to direct it in motion, including persons found alone, asleep, in a parked vehicle.

B. Motor Vehicle
   1. The law applies to any kind of motor vehicle including farm tractors, bulldozers, front-end loaders, mopeds, garden tractors and riding lawn mowers.

C. Under the Influence
1. “Under the Influence” is defined in terms of impaired ability to drive safely. It is not synonymous with an “alcohol concentration” of 0.08 or more. On the contrary, an alcohol concentration of “more than 0.05 and less than 0.08” is relevant evidence of whether or not the person is under the influence of alcohol. In reality, most human beings are visibly impaired at alcohol concentrations well below 0.08. Accordingly, it cannot be assumed that it is “legal” to drive so long as one remains below the 0.08 line.

D. Criminal Penalties
1. Generally, a first time offense is a misdemeanor, with a maximum sentence of 90 days in jail and a fine of $700. If the person has a prior “impaired driving conviction” within the previous five years, or two or more prior “impaired driving convictions” within the previous ten years, the crime is a gross misdemeanor, raising the maximum sentence to a year in jail and a fine of $3,000. “Impaired driving convictions” include adult convictions and juvenile adjudications.

E. Driver License Revocations
1. First offense: not less than 30 days;
2. Second offense in less than five years: not less than 90 days and until the court has certified that treatment or rehabilitation has been successfully completed where prescribed. After second offense, subsequent offenses call for longer periods of revocations; and under certain circumstances the registration plates and registration certificates of all motor vehicles registered in the name of any person whose license is revoked may be impounded. Prior juvenile adjudications as a DWI violator count as prior “convictions” for purposes of revocations.

F. Implied Consent
1. The Implied Consent statute provides that by driving a motor vehicle in this state, a person implicitly consents to submit to testing for intoxication. If testing is refused, you may be subject to criminal penalties, and your right to drive will be revoked for a minimum period of one year. If a test is taken and the results indicate that you are under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, you will be subject to criminal penalties, and your right to drive may be revoked for a minimum period of 90 days.

Liquor Control Violations for Persons under the Age of 21 Years
A. Consumption
1. It is a misdemeanor for any liquor licensee (such as a bar or restaurant) to permit any person under the age of 21 to consume alcoholic beverages on the premises. It is a misdemeanor for any person under the age of 21 years to consume any alcoholic beverages unless that person is in his parents’/guardians’ home and with their permission.

B. Purchasing
1. It is gross misdemeanor for any person to sell, barter, furnish, or give alcoholic beverages to a person under 21 years of age; except for the rights of parents/guardians as outlined under consumption.
2. It is a misdemeanor for any person under the age of 21 years to purchase or attempt to purchase any alcoholic beverage.
3. It is a gross misdemeanor for any person to induce a person under the age of 21 years to purchase or procure any alcoholic beverage, or to lend or permit the use of a driver’s license, permit, Minnesota identification card, or other form of identification, to a person under the age of 21 for the purpose of purchasing or attempting to purchase an alcoholic beverage.

C. Possession
1. It is a misdemeanor for any person under the age of 21 years to possess any alcoholic beverage with the intent to consume it at any place other than the household of person’s parent or guardian.
2. Mere possession at any place other than the home of the person’s parent or guardian is prima facie evidence of an intent to consume.

D. Entering Licensed Premises
1. Persons under the age of 21 years may not enter any licensed premises for the purpose of purchasing, being served or delivered, any alcoholic beverage.

E. Misrepresenting Age
1. It is a misdemeanor for any person under the age of 21 years to claim to be 21 years old or older for the purpose of purchasing alcoholic beverages.

F. Proof of Age
1. Proof of age must be established by a valid driver’s license, Minnesota identification card or, in the case of a foreign national, by a valid passport.
G. Driver License Suspensions for Illegal Purchase of Alcohol
   1. The Commissioner of Public Safety shall impose a 90-day suspension of driving privileges of any person
      (a) who is under the age of 21 years and is convicted of purchasing or attempting to purchase an alcoholic beverage if the person used a driver’s license, permit, or Minnesota identification card in making the purchase or attempted purchase or (b) who lends a driver’s license to someone under 21 to use to purchase alcoholic beverages.

H. Zero Tolerance of Underage Drinking and Driving
   1. If a person under the age of 21 drinks ANY amount of alcohol and then drives, the violator will lose his or her driver's license (30 days for the first offense, six months for a second and subsequent offense). More than a restriction, the cost of license reinstatement is substantial. Minnesota Statute 169.1218

Social Host Liability
Anyone over 21 who knowingly serves alcohol to someone under 21 may be held civilly liable for any damages subsequently caused by the person under 21.

Social Host Ordinance (Sec. 239):
Holds an individual criminally responsible for hosting or allowing an event or gathering on private or public property where persons under 21 years of age possess or consume alcohol, regardless of who supplied the alcohol.

Penalty for Violating the Social Host Ordinance:

CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES CRIMES AND PENALTIES UNDER MINNESOTA LAW
A. The degrees of drug crimes in Minnesota and the sentencing limits for each degree as set by Minnesota legislature in 1989 and amended in 1990 are indicated below. The “guidelines” listed for each degree refer to the lengths of time that a person convicted of an offense at that degree would serve in prison. These guidelines are set by the Minnesota Sentencing Guidelines Commission. The actual length of sentence is determined by the defendant’s criminal history. For instance, a person convicted of a second degree drug offense who has no prior convictions will get a shorter sentence than another person also convicted of a second degree drug offense who happens to have a prior record. In addition, pursuant to 1989 legislation, a judge may increase a sentence if the drug offense took place in a school zone or a park zone. If the guidelines call for probation, the defendant can be sentenced to serve up to 12 months in the local jail or workhouse.

B. First Degree
   1. Sale: 10 grams crack, 50 grams cocaine/heroin/methamphetamine, 200 doses hallucinogen, 50 kilos marijuana.
   2. Possession: 25 grams crack, 500 grams cocaine/heroin/methamphetamine, 500 does hallucinogen, 100 kilos marijuana.
   3. Penalty: 0-30 yrs, 4 yr mandatory minimum if prior drug felony; up to $1 million fine.
   4. Guidelines: 86 to 146 months.
C. Second Degree
1. Sale: 3 grams crack, 10 grams cocaine/heroin/methamphetamine, 50 doses hallucinogen, 25 kilos marijuana, or sale of any Schedule I or II narcotic drug either to a person under 18 or in a school zone or park zone.
3. Penalty: 0-25 yrs, 3 yr minimum if prior drug felony; up to $500,000 fine.

D. Third Degree
1. Sale: Crack/cocaine/heroin, 10 doses hallucinogen, 5 kilos marijuana, or sale of any Schedule I, II, or III drug (except a Schedule I or II narcotic drug or marijuana) to a person under 18 or employment of person under 18 to sell same.
2. Possession: 3 grams crack, 10 grams cocaine/heroin/methamphetamine, 10 kilos marijuana, and any amount of a Schedule I or II narcotic drug in a school zone or park zone.
3. Penalty: 0-20 yrs, 2 yr mandatory minimum if prior drug felony; up to $250,000 fine.
4. Guidelines: For possession of crack and cocaine, 48-98 months; for all other third degree offenses, probation to 54 months.

E. Fourth Degree
1. Sale: Any Schedule I, II, or III drug (except marijuana), or sale of marijuana or any Schedule IV or V drug to person under 18.
2. Possession: 10 doses hallucinogen.
3. Penalty: 0-15 yrs, 1 yr mandatory minimum if prior drug felony; up to $100,000 fine.

F. Fifth Degree
1. Sale: Marijuana, or any Schedule IV drug.
2. Possession: All Schedule I, II, III, or IV drugs except 1.5 ounces (42.4 grams) or less of marijuana.
3. Penalty: 0-5 yrs, 6 month mandatory minimum if prior drug felony; up to $10,000 fine.
4. Guidelines: Probation

G. Possession of 1.5 ounces (42.5 grams) or less of marijuana is a petty misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to $200 and required attendance at an approved drug education program. Failure to comply with those sanctions or a second conviction within two years constitutes a misdemeanor. Possession of more than 1.4 grams of marijuana in an automobile continues to be a misdemeanor under Minnesota law.

H. In addition to charging offenders with possession and sale crimes, Minnesota prosecutors can charge drug offenders with, depending on the circumstances: (1) failure to purchase drug tax stamps from the State Commissioner of Revenue; (2) money laundering, if the person conducted a financial transaction with money that he knew was the proceeds of a felony drug crime; and (3) racketeering, under which a dealer can be fined up to three times his gross profits.

CONVOCATIONS
Convocations are University community gatherings for lectures or presentations by scholars or experts on topics of particular relevance to our campus, for the benefit and edification of all. Classes and meetings are not to be scheduled during this period so that all students can attend presentations. Requests for convocation dates and topics are directed to the Director of the Faculty Scholarship Center. For more information on convocations, follow this link http://info.csp.edu/convocations

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES & DETECTION SYSTEMS
Fire
Call 911 in the event of any fire. Activate the local alarms and leave the building. Remember—the fire alarm does NOT inform the Fire Department about a fire; it is intended to alert people to leave a building. When calling the Fire Department, precisely identify the building, using the building address and inform Security at 651-641-8777. Then stand ready to direct the firefighters.
Smoke Detectors
All residence hall rooms and apartments are equipped with a smoke alarm. This device provides warning of fire or smoke. If the alarm is activated due to smoke or fire, residents are to vacate the room or apartment, close the door, and pull the nearest fire alarm.

Smoke detectors are tested twice each year by university staff. If at any time the detector begins to “chirp”, please notify Residence Life Staff. Batteries can be obtained from the Maintenance Office, Safety or Security. Individual occupants may be subject to citation and fine from inspectors or the fire marshal if the detector is removed or tampered with in any way.

Threats
If a person or property is threatened, call police by dialing 911. If it is not an emergency, notify security by calling 651-641-8777. A security officer will respond to your call, assess the situation and decide if the police should be contacted. Police can be contacted in a non-emergency situation by dialing 651-291-1111.

WEATHER-RELATED INFORMATION
Severe weather can strike at any time. Having a plan that includes knowing where to go and what to do in the event of severe weather is critical to your safety and that of others. Each individual of the campus community has the responsibility to know the safe area of their building and move there in the event of an emergency.

Watches
Watches highlight the area where severe weather or tornadoes are most likely to develop. Continue with your normal activities, but keep informed of the latest weather information, and be ready to get to shelter in case tornadoes develop quickly.

Warnings
Warnings are issued when severe weather has been reported or is imminent. Seek shelter immediately if you are in or near the path of the storm. Warnings are issued by county names. Concordia University, St. Paul, is located in Ramsey County.

Safety Precautions
In an apartment, school or office building, move to the innermost room on the lowest level or to a pre-designated shelter area. Stay away from windows. If in a hallway, crouch down and protect your head from flying debris. Avoid areas with glass and large roof expansions. Remain in the designate safe area until the all clear has been given by security staff.

Know What To Do!
During severe weather warnings:
1. Seek safety immediately. Do not go outside to “watch the weather.”
2. Do not open windows. This can increase your chance of injury as well as damage to the building.
3. Stay away from windows and exterior doors. Seek shelter in basements or interior hallways and rooms on the lowest floor.
4. Follow the directions given by the Security officer. They will give the “all clear” when the threat has passed.

If severe weather strikes:
1. Report all injuries and damage to the Security Department at 651-641-8777. If you are a residential student, notify your RA.
2. After the all-clear siren sound, evacuate damaged buildings and do not attempt to return to the building unless directed to do so by the Safety Department, Security Department or the Maintenance Department.

GRIEVANCES
I. Introduction
Concordia University is committed to a policy of treating fairly all members of the University’s community in regard to their personal and professional concerns. However, times do occur in which students think they have been mistreated. This procedure is provided in order to ensure that students are aware of the way in which their problems with a University employee can be resolved informally and to provide a more formal reconciliation process when needed.

II. Definition
A grievance is defined as dissatisfaction occurring when a student believes that any conduct or condition affecting him or her is unjust or inequitable, or creates unnecessary hardship. A grievance arises when a student believes, based on established administrative policies and procedures, that he or she has been treated in an arbitrary or capricious manner by a university department or a representative of the university.

A grievance against a university official arises when a student believes he or she has been subjected to inappropriate behavior or lack of a timely resolution by a department or university employee acting within their role and duty.

A grievance of personal misconduct by a university employee arises when a student believes he or she is the subject of inappropriate behavior outside of the employee’s role and duties within the university.

III. Informal Grievance Resolution
Prior to bringing a grievance forward, students are highly encouraged to attempt a good-faith resolution of the grievance. This attempt may be made with the party directly involved with the disputed matter, or with the head of the department in which the grievance arises. Attempts at informal resolution should be initiated within 30 days of the incident.

IV. Formal Grievance Resolution
Should a situation arise in which a student is unable to resolve his or her grievance informally, the university’s formal grievance process may be employed. This process, outlined below, should also be initiated 30 days of the failed informal resolution.
Step 1: A formal grievance is filed electronically using the Student Grievance Form. This form can be found on CSP Connect under the Advising and Students Resources Tab and in the Student Policies section. This report is submitted to the Dean of Student’s Office.
Step 2: Upon receipt of the formal grievance, a designee is appointed by the Dean of Students to investigate the dispute. Depending upon the grievance, pertinent data will be gathered by the investigator. This data is then presented to the Dean of Students and/or department head (overseeing the staff/faculty member mentioned in the grievance) for resolution. If the grievance is based on personal misconduct by a faculty or staff member or other university employee, Human Resources will be notified.

GUNS/WEAPONS/EXPLOSIVES
Weapons, firearms, ammunition, fireworks, explosives and all lethal weapons are strictly prohibited on campus and are subject to confiscation. Weapons include, but are not limited to tasers, stun guns, pellet/bb guns, and knives (other than an ordinary pocketknife carried in a closed position with a blade of three inches or less or cutlery of a reasonable size when used in a kitchen or other food preparation). The possessor is also subject to disciplinary action. Possession of a license to possess or use any of the above items shall not constitute a defense of any violation of this section, unless otherwise noted in other University policies.

INCLUSIVE LANGUAGE (FH 6.88)
A. The University's mission statement commits the institution to preparing students "for dedicated service to God and humanity." In keeping with this mission, the University encourages communication that shows respect for all individuals. Therefore, all members of the university community will avoid language and illustrations that reinforce discriminatory attitudes or misleading stereotypes about people. Every official University communication, whether written or oral, shall use inclusive language.
B. All supervisory personnel will be responsible for assuring that this policy is followed.

NON-DISCRIMINATION
Concordia University, St. Paul admits students of any age, race, color, disability, sex, national and ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the university. It does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, disability, gender, familial status, sexual orientation, religion, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic, and other university-administered programs.

Concordia does not discriminate on the basis of disability (cf. Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 as amended).

PURCHASING ITEMS FOR PERSONAL USE
University funds are not to be used to purchase items for the personal, non-university related use of students, faculty or staff. As a result, goods or services purchased with University funds remain the property of the University and under the control of the University (for example, a shirt purchased with general university funds, issued to a student and not returned to the university at the end of practices or performance, is no longer under the control of the university even though it may technically remain university property).
A. In the event that any University-owned property is no longer needed by the University, it should be designated as surplus by the department which controls it. It is placed at the disposal of the Vice President for Finance and Operations, who liquidates it according to the university's established policies.

B. Agency accounts contain funds held by the University, which serves as an agent for other entities or individuals. Items purchased from agency account funds can be issued to individuals who are appropriately connected with the intended purpose of the agency account (for example, an agency account established to enhance the volleyball program, containing funds raised by student-athlete volleyball players and/or coaches, may be used to purchase jackets for program participants). Regular purchasing procedures, including completing requisitions and obtaining a purchase order in advance of acquisition, must be followed.

C. If an item is to be used as a part of an official uniform or costume and is to remain in the possession or control of the person to whom issued, the University may subsidize up to one-third of the cost of the item. The person to whom the item is issued must pay the balance of the actual cost before receiving the item. The University’s portion will be paid only if the purchase has been budgeted and approved in the budgeting process.

D. Consumable items are not intended to be covered by this policy. Consumable items are items which are used up, or items which cannot be used by others.

E. Exceptions to this policy in extraordinary circumstances must be approved by the program area’s Vice President and the University President. Approval must be secured in advance of any order or purchase.

F. The following exceptions have been made:
   1. an orientation T-shirt, available to all new students as a welcome gift;
   2. a T-shirt awarded to intramural champions in lieu of a trophy; and
   3. shirts for RAs and Student Senate leaders which serve as identifiers.

SEARCHES

Any person present on University premises or at off-campus University-sponsored functions who is in possession of a bag, purse, backpack, or any other container where contraband, weapons, alcohol, or any other prohibited substance could be contained is subject to search by a University official. This includes, but is not limited to, vehicles parked on University premises when there is reason to believe the vehicle contains any prohibited item.

3) Report online (anonymous option is provided) www.csp.edu/reporting
All reports are acted upon promptly while every effort is made by the University to preserve the privacy of reports. If an anonymous report is received, it will be investigated to determine if remedies can be provided. Additionally, all employees of the University are designated as mandatory reporters and will share a report with the Title IX Coordinator promptly. Confidentiality and mandatory reporting is addressed more specifically in later sections of this policy. Reports of misconduct or discrimination committed by the Title IX Coordinator should be reported to Rev. Dr. Tom Ries, President, 651-641-8211 or ries@csp.edu

Jurisdiction

This policy applies to behaviors that take place on the campus, at University-sponsored events and may also apply off-campus and to actions online when the Title IX Coordinator determines that the off-campus conduct affects a substantial University interest. A substantial University interest is defined to include:

a) Any action that constitutes a criminal offense as defined by law, this includes but is not limited to, single or repeat violation of any local, state or federal law;
b) Any situation where it appears that the responding party may present a danger or threat to the health or safety of self or others;
c) Any situation that significantly impinges upon the rights, property or achievements of self or others or significantly breaches the peace and/or causes social disorder; and/or
d) Any situation that is detrimental to the educational interests of the University.

1. Concordia University Policy on Nondiscrimination

Concordia University adheres to the specific non-discrimination policies that are detailed in the employee handbook (for faculty and staff) and in the student policies handbook (for all students). Please reference these documents for the specific policy for each group.

These policies cover nondiscrimination in employment and in access to educational opportunities. Therefore, any member of the campus community who acts to deny, deprive or limit the educational, employment, residential access, benefits and/or opportunities of any member of the campus community, guest or visitor on the basis of their actual or perceived membership in the protected classes listed above is in violation of the University policy on nondiscrimination. When brought to the attention of the University, any such discrimination will be appropriately addressed and remedied by the University according to the Equity Grievance Policy (EGP) described below. Non-members of the campus community who engage in discriminatory actions within University program or on University property are not under the jurisdiction of this policy, but can be subject to actions that limit their access and/or involvement with University programs as a result of their misconduct. All vendors serving the University through third-party contracts are subject by those contract to the policy and procedures of their employers.

2. Concordia University Policy on Accommodation of Disabilities

Concordia University is committed to full compliance with the American with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA and ADAAA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, which prohibits discrimination against qualified persons with disabilities, as well as other federal and state laws pertaining to individuals with disabilities. Under the ADA and its amendments, a person has a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity. The ADA also protects individuals who have a record of a substantially limiting impairment or who are regarded as disabled by the institution whether qualified or not. A substantial impairment is one that significantly limits or restricts a major life activity such as hearing, seeing, speaking, breathing, performing manual tasks, walking or caring for oneself.

Dr. Cheryl Chatman has been designated as the ADA/504 Coordinator responsible for coordinating efforts to comply with these disability laws, including investigation of any allegation of noncompliance.
a. Students with Disabilities

Concordia University is committed to providing qualified students with disabilities with reasonable accommodations and support needed to ensure equal access to academic programs and activities of the University.

All accommodations are made on a case-by-case basis. A student requesting any accommodation should first contact the Student Accessibilities Services Office which coordinates services for students with disabilities. Student Accessibilities Service Staff review documentation provided by the student and in consultation with the student, determines which accommodations are appropriate to the student’s particular needs and academic programs.

b. Employees with Disabilities

Pursuant to the ADA, Concordia University will provide reasonable accommodation(s) to all qualified employees with known disabilities, where their disability affects the performance of their essential job functions, except where doing so would be unduly disruptive or would result in undue hardship.

An employee with a disability is responsible for requesting an accommodation in writing to the Director of Human Resources and provide appropriate documentation. The Director of Human Resources or their appointed designee will work with the employee’s supervisor to identify which essential functions of the position are affected by the employee’s disability and what reasonable accommodations could enable the employee to perform those duties.

3. Concordia University’s Policy on Discriminatory Harassment

Students, staff, administrators and faculty are entitled to a working environment and educational environment free of discriminatory harassment. The University’s harassment policy is not meant to inhibit or prohibit educational content or discussions inside or outside of the classroom that include germane, but controversial or sensitive subject matters protected by academic freedom. The sections below describe the specific forms of legally prohibited harassment that are also prohibited under the University’s policy.

a. Discriminatory and Bias-Related Harassment

Harassment constitutes a form of discrimination that is prohibited by the University’s policy as well as the law. Concordia University condemns and will not tolerate discriminatory harassment against any employee, student, visitor or guest on the basis of any status protected by policy or law. The University will remedy all forms of harassment when reported, whether or not the harassment rises to the level of creating a hostile environment. When harassment rises to the level of creating a hostile environment, the University may also impose sanctions on the harasser through application of the Equity Grievance Process. Concordia University’s harassment policy explicitly prohibits any form of harassment, defined as unwelcome conduct on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class, by any member or group of the community.

A hostile environment may be created by harassing verbal, written, graphic or physical conduct that is severe or persistent/pervasive, and objectively offensive such that it interferes with, limits or denies the ability of an individual to participate in or benefit from educational programs or activities or employment access, benefits or opportunities.

The University reserves the right to address offensive conduct and/or harassment that:

1) Does not rise to the level of creating a hostile environment or
2) That is of a generic nature not on the basis of a protected status.

Addressing such behaviors may not result in the imposition of discipline under University policy, but will be addressed through respectful confrontation, remedial actions, and education and/or effective conflict resolution mechanisms. For assistance with conflict resolution techniques, employees should contact the Director of Human Resources and students should contact the Associate Dean of Students.

b. Sexual Harassment

The Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights (OCR), the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) and the State of Minnesota regard sexual harassment as a form of sex/gender discrimination and, therefore as an unlawful discriminatory practice. The University has adopted the following definition of sexual harassment in order to address the special environment of an academic community, which consists not only of employer and employees but of students as well.

Sexual harassment is:

- unwelcome,
- sexual, sex-based and/or gender based,
- verbal, written, online and/or physical conduct.

Anyone experiencing sexual harassment in any University program is encouraged to report it immediately to the Title IX Coordinator or Deputy Coordinator. Remedies, education and/or training will be provided in response.

Sexual harassment may be disciplined when it takes the form of quid pro quo harassment, retaliatory harassment and/or creates a hostile environment.

A hostile environment is created when sexual harassment is:

- Severe, or
- persistent or pervasive, and
- objectively offensive such that it:
  - unreasonably interferes with, denies or limits someone’s ability to participate in or benefit from the University’s educational, employment or residential program.

Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment:

Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature by a person having power or authority over another constitutes sexual harassment when submission to such sexual conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly to a term or condition of rating or evaluation an individual's educational development or performance.

Some examples of possible Sexual Harassment include:

- A professor insists that a student have sex with him/her in exchange for a good grade. This is harassment regardless of whether the student accedes to the requests and irrespective of whether a good grade is promised or a bad grade is threatened.
- A student repeatedly sends sexually oriented jokes around on an email list s/he created, even when asked to stop, causing one recipient to avoid the sender on campus and in the residence hall in which they both live.
- Explicit sexual pictures are displayed on a professor’s door or on the exterior of a residence hall door.
- Two supervisors frequently ‘rate’ several employees’ bodies and sex appeal, commenting suggestively about their clothing or appearance.
- A professor engages students in her class in discussions about their past sexual experiences yet the conversation is not in any way germane to the subject matter of the class. She probes for explicit details, and demands that students answer her, though they are clearly uncomfortable and hesitant.
- An ex-girlfriend widely spreads false stories about her sex life with her former boyfriend to the clear discomfort of the boyfriend, turning him into a social pariah on campus.
Male students take to calling a particular brunette student “Monica” because of her resemblance to Monica Lewinsky. Soon, everyone adopts this nickname for her, and she is the target of relentless remarks about cigars, the president, and “sexual relations” and Weight Watchers.

A student grabbed another student by the hair, then grabbed her breast and put his mouth on it. While this is sexual harassment, it is also a form of sexual violence.

Policy Expectations with Respect to Consensual Relationships

There are inherent risks in any romantic or sexual relationship between individuals in unequal positions (such as faculty and student, supervisor and employee). These relationships may be less consensual than perceived by the individual whose position confers power. The relationship may also be viewed in different ways by each of the parties, particularly in retrospect. Furthermore, circumstances may change, and conduct that was previously welcome may become unwelcome. Even when both parties have consented at the outset to a romantic or sexual involvement, this past consent may not remove grounds for later charge of a violation or applicable sections of this policy. The University does not wish to interfere with the private choices regarding personal relationships when these relationships do not interfere with the goals and policies of the University. For the personal protection of members of this community, relationships in which power differentials are inherent (faculty-student, staff-student, administrator-student) are generally discouraged.

Consensual romantic or sexual relationships in which one party maintains a direct supervisory or evaluative role over the other party are unethical. Therefore a person with direct supervisory or evaluative responsibilities who are involved in such relationships must bring those relationships to the timely attention of their supervisor, and will likely result in the necessity to remove the employee from the supervisory or evaluative responsibilities or shift a part out of being supervised or evaluated by someone with whom they have established a consensual relationship. While no relationships are prohibited by this policy, failure to timely self-report such relationships to a supervisor as required can result in disciplinary action for an employee.

c. Sexual Misconduct

State law defines various violent and/or non-consensual sexual acts as crimes. While some of these acts may have parallels in criminal law, the University has defined categories of sex/gender discrimination as sexual misconduct, as stated below, for which action under this policy may be imposed. Generally speaking, Concordia University considers Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse violations to be the most serious of these offenses, and therefore typically imposes the most severe sanctions, including suspension or expulsion for students and termination for employees. However, the University reserves the right to impose any level of sanction, ranging from a warning up to and including suspension or expulsion/termination, for any act of sexual misconduct or other sex/gender-based offenses, including intimate partner (dating and/or domestic) violence, non-consensual sexual contact and/or stalking based on the facts and circumstance of the particular allegation. Acts of sexual misconduct may be committed by any person upon any other person, regardless of the sex, sexual orientation and/or gender identity of those involved.

Violations include:

i. Sexual Harassment (as defined in section b above)

ii. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse

   Defined as:
   - any sexual intercourse
   - however slight
   - with any object
   - by a person upon another person
   - that is without consent and/or by force

   Sexual intercourse includes:
Vaginal or anal penetration by a penis, tongue, finger or object, or oral copulation (mouth to genital contact) no matter slight the penetration or contact.

iii. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact
Defined as:
- any intentional sexual touching
- however slight
- with any object
- by a person upon another person
- that is without consent and/or by force

Sexual touching includes:
- Intentional contact with the breasts, groin, or genitals, mouth or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts: or
- Any other bodily contact in a sexual manner.

iv. Sexual Exploitation
Sexual exploitation refers to a situation in which a person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another, and that behavior does not otherwise fall within the definitions of Sexual Harassment, Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse or Non-Consensual Sexual Contact. Examples of Sexual Exploitation include, but are not limited to:
- Sexual voyeurism (such as watching a person undressing, using the bathroom or engaged in sexual acts without the consent of the person observed).
- Invasion of sexual privacy.
- Taking pictures or video or audio recording another in a sexual act or in any other private activity without the consent of all involved in the activity, or exceeding the boundaries of consent (such as allowing another person to hide in a closet and observe sexual activity or disseminating sexual pictures without the photographed person’s consent).
- Prostitution.
- Sexual exploitation also includes engaging in sexual activity with another person while knowingly infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), a sexually transmitted disease (STD) or infection (STI) without informing the other person of the infection.
- Administering alcohol or drugs (such as “date rape” drugs) to another person without his or her knowledge or consent (assuming the act is not completed).
- Exposing one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances.
- Sexually-based staling and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation.

v. Force and Consent

Force: Force is the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats) and coercion that overcome resistance or produce consent (“Have sex with me or I’ll hit you.” “Okay, don’t hit me, I’ll do what you want.”).

Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differ from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get consent from another. When someone makes clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.

NOTE: Silence or the absence of resistance alone is not consent. There is no requirement on a party to resist the sexual advance or request, but resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent. The presence of consent is not demonstrated by the absence of resistance. Sexual Consent: Consent is knowing, voluntary and clear permission by word or action to engage in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. Since individuals may experience the same interaction in different ways, it is the responsibility of each party to make certain that the other has consented before engaging in the activity. For consent to be valid, there must be a clear expression in words or actions that the other individual consented to that specific sexual conduct. Consent can be withdrawn once given, as long as the withdrawal is clearly communicated.

Consent to some sexual contact (such as kissing or fondling) cannot be presumed to be consent for other sexual activity (such as intercourse). A current or previous dating relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent. The existence of consent is based on the totality of the circumstances, including the context in which the alleged incident occurred and any similar previous patterns that may be evidenced.

Incapacitation: A person cannot consent if they are unable to understand what is happening or is disoriented, helpless, asleep or unconscious for any reason, including due to alcohol or other drugs. An individual who engages in sexual activity when the individual knows, or should know, that the other person is physically or mentally incapacitated has violated this policy.

It is not an excuse that the responding party was intoxicated and therefore, did not realize the incapacity of the reporting party.

Incapacitation is defined as a state were someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing/informed consent (e.g., to understand the “who, what, when, where, why or how” of their sexual interaction). This policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, involuntary physical restraint and/or from the taking of incapacitating drugs.

In Minnesota, a minor (meaning a person under the age of 16 years) cannot consent to sexual activity. This means that sexual contact by an adult with a person younger than 16 years old may be a crime, and potential violation of this policy, even if the minor wanted to engage in the act.

Examples of lack of consent:

1. Amanda and Bill meet at a party. They spend the evening dancing and getting to know each other. Bill convinces Amanda to come up to his room. From 11pm to 3am, Bill uses every line he can think of to convince Amanda to have sex with him, but she adamantly refuses. He keeps at her and begins to question her religious convictions, and accuses her of “being a prude”. Finally it seems that her resolve is weakening, and he convinces her to give him a “hand job” (hand to genital contact). Amanda would never have done it but for Bill’s incessant advances. He feels that he successfully seduced her, and that she wanted to do it all along but was playing shy and hard to get. Why else would she have come up to his room alone after the party? If she really didn’t want it she could have left.

Bill is responsible for violating the university’s Non-Consensual Sexual Contact policy. It is likely that the campus decision-makers would find that the degree and duration of the pressure Bill applied to Amanda are unreasonable. Bill coerced Amanda into performing unwanted sexual touching upon him. Where sexual activity is coerced, it is forced. Consent is not valid when forced. Sex without consent is sexual misconduct.

2. Jiang is junior at the university. Beth is a sophomore. Jiang comes to Beth’s residence hall room with some mutual friends to watch a movie. Jiang and Beth, who have never met before, are attracted to each other. After the movie, everyone leaves and Jiang and Beth are alone. They hit it off, and soon are becoming intimate. They start to make out. Jiang verbally expresses his desire to have sex with Beth. Beth, who was abused by a baby-sitter when she was five and has not had any sexual relations since, is shocked at how quickly things are progressing. As Jiang takes her by the wrist over to the bed, lays her down, undresses her and begins to have intercourse with her. Beth has a severe flashback to her childhood trauma. She wants to tell Jiang to stop but cannot. Beth is stiff and unresponsive during this intercourse. Is this a policy violation?

Jiang would be held responsible in this scenario for Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse. It is the duty of the sexual initiator, Jiang, to make sure that he has mutually understandable consent to engage in sex. Though consent need not be verbal, it is the clearest form of consent. Here, Jiang had no verbal or non-verbal mutually understandable indication from Beth that she consented to sexual intercourse. Of course, whenever possible, it is important to be as clear as possible as to whether or not sexual contact is desired, and to be aware that for psychological reasons, or because of alcohol or drug use, one’s partner may not be in a position to provide as clear an indicator as the policy requires. As the policy makes clear, consent must be actively, not passively given.

3. Kevin and Joanna are at a party. Kevin is not sure how much Joanna has been drinking, but he is pretty sure it’s a lot. After the party, he walks Joanna to her room and Joanna comes on to Kevin initiating sexual activity. Kevin asks her if she is really up to this and Joanna says yes. Clothes go flying, and they end up in Joanna’s bed. Suddenly, Joanna runs for the bathroom. When she returns her face is pale and Kevin thinks she may have thrown up. Joanna gets back into bed and they begin to have sexual intercourse. Kevin is having a good time, though he can’t help but to notice that Joanna seems pretty groggy and passive and he thinks Joanna may have even passed out briefly during the sex, but he does not let that stop him. When Kevin runs into Joanna the next day, he thanks her for the wild night. Joanna remembers nothing and decides to make a report to the Dean.

This is a violation of the Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse Policy. Kevin should have known that Joanna was incapacitated of making a rational, reasonable decision about sex. Even if Joanna seemed to consent, Kevin was well aware that Joanna had consumed a large amount of alcohol and Kevin thought Joanna was physically ill and that she passed out during sex. Kevin should be held accountable for taking advantage of Joanna in her condition.

4. Other Civil Right Offenses

In addition to the forms of sexual misconduct described above, the following behaviors are also prohibited as forms of discrimination when the act is based upon the reporting party’s actual or perceived membership in a protected class.

- Threatening or causing physical harm, extreme verbal abuse, or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person;
- Discrimination, defined as actions that deprive, limit or deny other members of the community of educational or employment access, benefits or opportunities;
- Intimidation, defined as implied threats or acts that cause an unreasonable fear of harm in another;
- Hazing, defined as acts likely to cause physical or psychological harm or social ostracism to any person within the university community, when related to the admission, initiation, pledging, joining or any other group-affiliation activity;
- Bullying, defined as
  - Repeated and/or severe
  - Aggressive behavior
  - Likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control, or diminish another person, physically or mentally
  - That is not speech or conduct otherwise protected by the 1st Amendment.
- Intimate Partner Violence, defined as violence or abuse between those in an intimate relationship to each other;
  - Examples:
    - A boyfriend shoves his girlfriend into a wall upon seeing her talking to a male friend. This physical assault based in jealousy is a violation of the Intimate Partner Violence policy.
- An ex-girlfriend shames her former partner, threatening to share the partner’s previous sexual history if they don’t give the ex another chance. Psychological abuse is a form of Intimate Partner Violence.
- A graduate student refuses to wear a condom and forces his girlfriend to take hormonal birth control though it makes her ill, in order to prevent pregnancy.
- Married employees are witnessed in the parking garage, with one partner slapping and scratching the other in the midst of an argument.

- Stalking
  - Stalking 1
    - A course of conduct
    - Directed at a specific person
    - On the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class
    - That is unwelcome, AND
    - Would cause a reasonable person to feel fear
  - Stalking 2
    - Repetitive and Menacing
    - Pursuit, following, harassing and/or interfering with the peace and/or safety of another

- Examples of Stalking
  - A student repeatedly shows up at another student’s on-campus residence, always notifying the front desk attendant that they are there to see the resident. Upon a call to the resident, the student informs residence hall staff that this visitor is uninvited and continuously attempts to see them, even so far as waiting for them outside of classes and showing up to their on-campus place of employment and requesting that they go out on a date together (Stalking 1).
  - A graduate student working as an on-campus tutor receives flowers and gifts delivered to their office. After learning the gifts were from a student they recently tutored, the graduate student thanked the student and stated that it was not necessary and would appreciate if the gift deliveries stop. The student then started leaving notes of love and gratitude on the graduate assistant’s car, both on-campus and at home. Asked again to stop, the student stated by email: “You can ask me to stop by I’m not giving up. We are meant to be together, and I’ll do anything necessary to make you have the feelings for me that I have for you.” When the tutor did not respond, the student emailed again, “You cannot escape me. I will track you to the ends of the earth. We are meant to be together.” (Stalking 2).

- Any other University policies may fall within this section when a violation is motivated by the actual or perceived membership of the reporting party’s sex or gender.

Sanctions for the above-listed “Other Civil Rights Behaviors” behaviors range from reprimand through expulsion (students) or termination of employment.

5. Retaliation
Retaliation is defined as any adverse action taken against a person in a protected activity because of their participation in that protected activity. Retaliation against an individual for alleging harassment, supporting a party bringing an allegation or for assisting in providing information relevant to a claim of harassment is a serious violation of University policy and will be treated as another possible instance of harassment or discrimination. Acts of alleged retaliation should be reported immediately to the Title IX Coordinator and will be promptly investigated. Concordia University is prepared to take appropriate steps to protect individuals who fear that they may be subjected to retaliation.

Examples of Retaliation:
- Student-athlete A files an allegation against a coach for sexual harassment; the coach subsequently cuts the student athlete’s playing time in half without a legitimate justification.
A faculty member complains of gender inequity in pay within her department; the Department Chair then revokes his prior approval allowing her to attend a national conference, citing a faculty member’s tendency to “ruffle feathers.”

A student from Organization A participates in a sexual misconduct case against the reporting individual—also a member of Organization A; the student is subsequently removed as a member of Organization A because he participated in the case.

6. Remedial Action

Upon notice of alleged discrimination, Concordia University will implement initial remedial, responsive and/or protective actions upon notice of alleged harassment, retaliation and/or discrimination. Such action could include but are not limited to: no contact orders, providing counseling and/or medical services, academic support, living arrangement adjustments, transportation accommodations, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid counseling, providing a campus escort, academic or work schedule and assignment accommodations, safety planning, referral to campus and community support resources.

The University will take additional prompt remedial and/or disciplinary action with respect to any member of the community, guest or visitor upon a finding that they have engaged in harassing or discriminatory behavior or retaliation.

Concordia University will maintain as confidential any accommodations or proactive measures, provided confidentiality does not impair the University’s ability to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

Procedures for handling reported incidents are fully described below.

7. Confidentiality and Reporting of Offenses Under This Policy

All Concordia University employees (faculty, staff, and administrators) are expected to report actual or suspected discrimination or harassment to appropriate officials immediately, though there are some limited exceptions. In order to make informed choices, it is important to be aware of confidentiality and mandatory reporting requirements when consulting campus resources. On campus, some resources may maintain confidentiality—meaning they are not required to report actual or suspected discrimination or harassment to appropriate university officials—thereby offering options and advice without any obligation to inform an outside agency or campus official unless a reporting party has requested information to be shared. Other resources exist for reporting parties to report crimes and policy violations and these resources will take action when an incident is reported to them. The following describes the reporting options at the University:

a. Confidential Reporting

If a reporting party would like the details of an incident to be kept confidential, the reporting party may speak with:

On-Campus

- Rev. Tom Gundermann, CSP Pastor, 651-641-8271, gundermann@csp.edu
- Shelly Schwalm, Campus Ministry Associate, 651-641-8212, schwalm@csp.edu

Off-Campus

- Sexual Offense Services 651-643-3006
- Crisis Connection 612-379-6363 (24 hours); 612-379-6367 (24-hour men's hotline)
- Region's Hospital 651-254-5000
- Cigna Behavior Support (employee resource) 866-726-5267
All of the above-listed individuals will maintain confidentiality except in extreme cases of immediacy of threat or danger or abuse of a minor. Concordia University employees listed above will submit anonymous statistical information for Clery Act purposes unless they believe it would be harmful to their client, patient or parishioner.

b. Formal Reporting Options

All Concordia University employees have a duty to report, unless they fall under the “Confidential Reporting” section above. Reporting parties may want to consider carefully whether they share personally identifiable details with non-confidential employees, as those details must be shared with the Title IX Coordinator. Employees must promptly share all details of the reports they receive. Generally, climate surveys, classroom writing assignments or discussion, human subjects research, or events where individuals may speak out do not provide notice that must be reported to the Coordinator by employees, unless the reporting party clearly indicates that they wish a report to be made. Remedial actions may result from such disclosure without formal University action.

If a reporting party does not wish for their name to be shared, does not wish for an investigation to take place, or does not want a formal resolution to be pursued, the reporting party may make such a request to the Title IX Coordinator, who will evaluate that request in light of the duty to ensure the safety of the campus and comply with federal law. Note that the University’s ability to remedy and respond to a reported incident may be limited if the reporting party does not want the institution to proceed with an investigation and/or the Equity Grievance Policy. In cases indicating pattern, predation, threat, weapons and/or violence, the University will likely be unable to honor a request for confidentiality. In cases where the reporting party requests confidentiality and the circumstances allow the University to honor that request, the University will offer interim supports and remedies to the reporting party and the community, but will not otherwise pursue formal action. A reporting party has the right and can expect, to have allegations taken seriously by the University when formally reported and to have those incident investigated and properly resolved through these procedures.

Formal reporting still affords privacy to the reporter, and only a small group of officials who need to know will be told, including but not limited to: necessary Title IX team members, members of Student Affairs, Campus Security, Behavioral Intervention Team, and other individuals who the Title IX Coordinator or investigators deem necessary to provide support to the reporting party while still respecting confidentiality. Information will be shared as necessary with investigators, witnesses and the reporting party. The circle of people with this knowledge will be kept as tight as possible to preserve a reporting party’s rights and policy.

Additionally, anonymous reports can be made by victims and/or third parties using the online reporting form posted at www.csp.edu/reporting. Please note that these anonymous reports may prompt a need for the institution to investigate.

Failure of a non-confidential employee, as described in this section, to report an incident or incidents of sex/gender harassment or discrimination of which they become aware is a violation of University policy and can be subject to disciplinary action for failure to comply.

8. Federal Timely Warning Obligations

Parties reporting sexual misconduct should be aware the under the Clery Act, University administrators must issue timely warnings for incidents reported to them that pose a substantial threat of bodily harm or danger to members of the campus community. The University will ensure that a victim’s name or other identifying information is not disclosed, while still providing enough information for community members to make safety decisions in light of the potential danger.
9. False Allegations

Deliberately false and/or malicious accusations under this policy, as opposed to allegations which, even if erroneous are made in good faith, are a serious offense and will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

10. Amnesty for Reporting Party and Witnesses

The University community will encourage the reporting of misconduct and crimes by reporting parties and witnesses. Sometimes, reporting parties or witnesses are hesitant to report to University officials or participate in resolution processes because they fear that they themselves may be accused of policy violations, such as underage drinking at the time of the incident. It is in the best interest of this community that reporting parties choose to report to university officials, and that witnesses come forward to share what they know. To encourage reporting, Concordia University pursues a policy of offering reporting parties and witnesses amnesty from minor policy violations related to the incident.

Students: Sometimes, students are hesitant to offer assistance to others for fear that they may get themselves in trouble (for example, a student who has been drinking underage might hesitate to take a sexual misconduct victim to Campus Security). The University pursues a policy of amnesty for students who offer help to others in need. (While policy violations cannot be overlooked, the University will provide educational options, rather than punishment, to those who offer their assistance to others in need).

Employees: Sometimes employees are also hesitant to report harassment or discrimination they have experienced for fear that they may get themselves in trouble. For example, an employee who has violated the consensual relationship policy and then is assaulted in the course of the relationship might hesitate to report the incident to University officials. The institution may, at its discretion, offer employee reporting parties amnesty from such policy violations (typically more minor policy violations) related to the incident. Amnesty may also be granted to witnesses on a case-by-case basis.

11. Parental Notification (allegations involving students)

The University reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any health or safety risk, change in student status or conduct situation, particularly alcohol and other drug violations. The University may also notify parents/guardians of non-dependent students who are under age 21 of alcohol and/or drug policy violations. Where a student is non-dependent, the University will contact parents/guardians to inform them of situations in which there is a significant and articulable health and/or safety risk. The University also reserves the right to designate which university officials have a need to know about incidents that fall within this policy, pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

12. Federal Statistical Reporting Obligations

Certain campus officials – those deemed Campus Security Authorities – have a duty to report sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking for federal statistical reporting purposes (Clery Act). All personally identifiable information is kept confidential, but statistical information must be passed along to campus security regarding the type of incident and its general location (on or off-campus, in the surrounding area, but no addresses are given) for publication in the Annual Security Report. This report helps to provide the community with a clear picture of the extent and nature of campus crime, to encourage greater community safety. Mandated federal reporters include: student affairs/student conduct, campus security, local police, coaches, athletic directors, residence life staff, student activities staff, human resources staff, advisors to student organization and any other official with significant responsibility for student and campus activities. The information to be shared includes the date, the location of the incident (using Clery location categories) and the Clery crime category. This reporting protects the identity of the victim and may be done anonymously.
Equity Resolution Process for Allegations of Harassment, Sexual Misconduct and Other Forms of Discrimination

Concordia University will act on any formal or informal allegation or notice of violation of the policy on Equal Opportunity, Harassment and Nondiscrimination, that is received by the Title IX Coordinator or a member of the administration, faculty or other employee.

The procedures described below apply to all allegations of harassment or discrimination on the basis of protected class involving students, staff or faculty members. These procedures may also be used to address collateral misconduct occurring in conjunction with harassing or discriminatory conduct (e.g.: vandalism, physical abuse of another, etc.). All other allegations of misconduct unrelated to incidents covered by this policy will be addressed through the procedures elaborated in the respective student, faculty and staff handbooks.

Overview

Upon notice to the Title IX Coordinator, this resolution process involves a prompt preliminary inquiry to determine if there is reasonable cause to believe the nondiscrimination policy has been violated. If so, the University will initiate a confidential investigation that is thorough, reliable, impartial, prompt and fair. The investigation and the subsequent resolution process determines whether the nondiscrimination policy has been violated. If so, the University will promptly implement effective remedies designated to end the discrimination, prevent its recurrence and address its effects.

1. Equity Grievance Process (EGP)

   Allegations under the policy on nondiscrimination are resolved using the Equity Grievance Process. Members of the EGP team are announced in the annual distribution of this policy to campus, prospective students, their parents and prospective employees. The list of members and a description of this team can be found at www.csp.edu/reporting. Members of the EGP team are trained in all aspect of the resolution process and can serve in any of the following roles, at the direction of the Title IX Coordinator:

   - To provide sensitive intake for and initial advice pertaining to allegations
   - To serve in a mediation or restorative justice role in conflict resolution
   - To investigate allegations
   - To act as process advocates to those involved in the Equity Grievance Process
   - To offer recommendations based on the investigation to the Title IX Coordinator
   - To serve on the appeal panel for allegations

   EGP team members also recommend proactive policies and serve in an educative role for the campus. The Title IX Coordinator consults with the President to appoint members to the EGP team, which reports to the Title IX Coordinator. EGP team members receive annual training organized by the Title IX Deputy Coordinator, including a review of University policies and procedures as well as applicable federal and state laws and regulations so that they are able to appropriately address allegations, provide accurate information to members of the community, protect safety and promote accountability. This training will include but is not limited to: how to appropriately remedy, investigate, render findings and determine appropriate sanctions in reference to all forms of harassment and discrimination allegations; the University’s Discrimination and Harassment Policies and Procedures (including Sexual Misconduct; confidentiality and privacy; and applicable laws, regulations and federal regulatory guidance. All EGP team members are required to attend this annual training to be eligible to serve.

Concordia University’s Equity Grievance Process team members include:

- Title IX Coordinator
- Deputy Title IX Coordinator
Investigators representing a cross segment of University employees. Individuals may represent the following areas however investigators from other departments on campus are considered to create the greatest representation of the campus through the team.

- Human Resources
- Student Life
- Athletics
- Academic Advising
- Admissions

EGP team members are typically appointed. Appointments to the team should be made with attention to representation of groups protected by the harassment and non-discrimination policy. Individuals who are interested in serving in the pool are encouraged to contact the Title IX Coordinator. No member of the team may be a practicing attorney.

2. Reporting Misconduct

Any member of the community, guest or visitor who believes that the policy on Equal Opportunity, Harassment and Nondiscrimination (including the Sexual Misconduct Policy) has been violated should contact the Title IX Coordinator.

It is also possible for employees to notify a supervisor, or for students to notify an academic advisor, staff or faculty member. Any member of the community, including visitors, may contact the Security Department to make a report. These individuals will in turn notify the Title IX Coordinator. The University’s website also includes a reporting form which may be completed anonymously at www.csp.edu/reporting which may serve to initiate the resolution process.

All Concordia University employees, with the exception of confidential employees (campus ministry staff), receiving reports of a potential violation of the University policy are expected to promptly contact the Title IX Coordinator within 24 hours of becoming aware of a report or incident. All initial contacts will be treated with privacy; specific information on any allegations received by any party will be reported to the Title IX Coordinator, but, subject to the University’s obligation to redress violations, every effort will be made to maintain the privacy of those initiating an allegation. In all cases, Concordia University will give consideration to the reporting party with respect to how the reported misconduct is pursued, but reserves the right, when necessary to protect the community, to investigate and pursue a resolution even when the reporting party chooses not to initiate or participate in the resolution process.

3. Preliminary Inquiry

Following receipt of notice or a report of misconduct, the Title IX Coordinator or their appointed designee engages in a preliminary inquiry to determine if there is reasonable cause to believe the nondiscrimination policy has been violated. The preliminary inquiry is typically 1-3 days in duration. This inquiry may also serve to help the Title IX Coordinator to determine if the allegations evidence violence, threat, pattern, predation and/or weapon, in the event that the reporting party has asked for no action to be taken. In any case where violence, threat, pattern, predation, and/or weapon is not evidenced, the Title IX Coordinator may respect a reporting party’s request for no action and will investigate only so far as necessary to determine appropriate remedies. As necessary, the University reserves that right to initiate resolution proceedings without a formal report or participation by the reporting party.

In cases where the reporting party wishes to proceed or the University determines it must proceed, and the preliminary inquiry shows that reasonable cause exists, the Title IX Coordinator will direct a formal investigation to commence and the allegation will be resolved through one of the processes discussed briefly here and in greater detail below:
- Conflict Resolution—typically used for less serious offenses and only when both parties agree to conflict resolution
- Administrative Resolution—resolution by a trained administrator

The process followed considers the preference of the parties, but is ultimately determined at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator. Conflict Resolution may only occur if selected by all parties, otherwise the Administrative Resolution Process applies.

If conflict resolution is desired by the reporting party and appears appropriate given the nature of the alleged behavior, then the report does not proceed to investigation, unless a pattern of misconduct is suspected or there is an actual or perceived threat of further harm to the community or any of its members.

Once a formal investigation is commenced, the Title IX Coordinator will provide written notification of the investigation to the responding party at an appropriate time during the investigation. The University aims to complete all investigations within a sixty (60) calendar day time period, which can be extended as necessary for appropriate cause by the Title IX Coordinator with notice to the parties as appropriate.

If, during the preliminary inquiry or at any point during the formal investigation, the Title IX Coordinator determines that there is no reasonable cause to believe that policy has been violated, the process will end unless the reporting party requests that the Title IX Coordinator makes an extraordinary determination to reopen the investigation. This decision lies in the sole discretion of the Title IX Coordinator.

4. Interim Remedies/Actions

The Title IX Coordinator may provide interim remedies intended to address the short-term effects of harassment, discrimination and/or retaliation, i.e., to redress harm to the reporting party and the community and to prevent further violations. These remedies may include, but are not limited to:

- Referral to counseling and health services
- Referral to the Employee Assistance Program
- Education to the community
- Altering the housing situation of the responding party (resident student or resident employee (or the reporting party, if desired))
- Providing campus escorts
- Providing transportation accommodations
- Implementing contact limitations between the parties
- Offering adjustments to academic deadlines, course schedules, etc.

The University may interim suspend a student, employee or organization pending the completion of the EGP investigation and procedures, particularly when in the judgement of the Title IX Coordinator the safety or well-being of any member(s) of the campus community may be jeopardized by the presence on-campus of the responding party or the ongoing activity of a student organization whose behavior is in question. In all cases in which an interim suspension is imposed, the student, employee or student organization will be given the option to meet with the Title IX Coordinator prior to such suspension being imposed, or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible, to show cause why the suspension should not be implemented. The Title IX Coordinator has sole discretion to implement or stay an interim suspension and to determine its conditions and duration. Violation of an interim suspension under this policy will be grounds for expulsion or termination.

During an interim suspension or administrative leave, a student or employee may be denied access to University housing and/or the University campus, facilities and events. As determined by the Title IX Coordinator, this restriction can include classes and/or all other University activities or privileges for which the student might otherwise be eligible. At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator, alternative coursework options may be pursued to ensure as minimal an impact as possible on the parties involved.
The institution will maintain as confidential any interim actions or protective measures, provide confidentiality does not impair the institution’s ability to provide the interim actions or protective measures.

5. Investigation

Once the decision is made to commence a formal investigation, the Title IX Coordinator appoints EGP team members to conduct the investigation (typically using a team of two EGP investigators), usually within two (2) days of determining that an investigation should proceed. Investigations are completed expeditiously, normally within ten (10) days, though some investigations take weeks or even months, depending on the nature, extent and complexity of the allegations, availability of witnesses, police involvement, etc.

The University may undertake a short delay in its investigation (several days to weeks, to allow evidence collection) when criminal charges on the basis of the same behaviors that invoke this process are being investigated. The University will promptly resume its investigation and resolution process once notified by law enforcement that the initial evidence collection process is complete. University action will not typically be altered or precluded on the grounds that civil or criminal charges involving the same incident have been filed or that charges have been dismissed or reduced.

All investigations will be thorough, reliable, impartial, prompt and fair. Investigations entail interviews with all relevant parties and witnesses, obtaining available evidence and identifying sources of expert information as necessary.

The investigators will typically take the following steps, if not already completed (not necessarily in order):

- In coordination with campus partners (e.g.: the Title IX Coordinator), initiate or assist with any remedial actions;
- Determine the identity and contact information of the reporting party;
- Identify all policies allegedly violated;
- Assist the Title IX Coordinator with an immediate preliminary inquiry to determine if there is reasonable cause to believe the reporting party has violated policy;
- Commence a thorough, reliable and impartial investigation by developing a strategic investigation plan, including a witness list, evidence list, intended timeframe, and order of interviews for all witnesses and the responding party, who may be given prior notice to or at the time of the interview;
- Prepare the notice of allegation (charges) on the basis of the preliminary inquiry;
- Meet with the reporting party to finalize their statement if necessary;
- If possible, provide written notification to the parties prior to their interviews that they may have the assistance of an EGP team member or other advocate of their choosing present for all meetings attended by the advisee;
- Provide reporting party and responding party with a written description of the alleged violation(s), a list of all policies allegedly violated, a description of the applicable procedures and a statement of the potential sanctions/responsive actions that could result;
- Prior to the conclusion of the investigation, provide the reporting party and the responding party with a list of witnesses whose information will be used to render a finding;
- Allow each party the opportunity to suggest questions they wish the investigators to ask of the other party and witnesses;
- Provide parties with all relevant evidence to be used in rendering a determination and provide each with a full and fair opportunity to address that evidence prior to a finding being rendered;
- Complete the investigation promptly, and without unreasonable deviation from the intended timeline;
- Provide regular updates to the reporting party throughout the investigation, and to the responding party as appropriate;
- Once the report is completed, the report may be shared with the parties for their review and comments. The investigators may incorporate feedback from the parties as appropriate;
- Recommend to the Title IX Coordinator a finding, based on a preponderance of the evidence (whether a policy violation is more likely than not);
• The Title IX Coordinator finalizes and presents the findings to the parties, simultaneously, usually via email with prior notice to both parties as to when the findings will be sent.

At any point during the investigation if it is determined there is no reasonable cause to believe that University policy has been violated, the Title IX Coordinator has authority to terminate the investigation and end resolution proceedings.

Witnesses (as distinguished from the parties) are expected to cooperate with and participate in the University investigation and the Equity Grievance Process. Failure of a witness to cooperate with and/or participate with the investigation or EGP constitutes a violation of policy and may be subject to discipline. Witnesses may provide written statements of lieu of interviews during the investigation and may be interviewed remotely by phone, Skype (or similar technology) if they cannot be interviewed in person or if the investigators determine that timeliness or efficiency dictates a need for remote interviewing. Parties who elect not to participate in the investigation or to withhold information from the investigation do not have the ability to offer evidence later during the appeal if it could have been offered during the investigation. Failure to offer evidence prior to an appeal does not constitute grounds for appeal on the basis of new evidence.

No unauthorized audio or video recording of any kind is permitted during investigation meetings or other Equity Grievance Process proceedings.

6. Advisors

Each party is allowed to have an advisor of their choice present with them for all EGP meetings and proceedings, from intake through to final determination. The parties may select whomever they wish to serve as their advisor as long as the advisor is eligible and available, and usually otherwise not involved in the resolution process such as serving as a witness. The advisor may be a friend, mentor, family member, attorney, or any other supporter a party chooses to advise them who is available and eligible. Witnesses cannot also serve as advisors. The parties may choose advisors from inside or outside the campus community. The Title IX Coordinator will also offer to assign a trained EGP team member to work as an advisor/advocate for any party. The parties may choose their advisor from the EGP team, choose a non-trained advisor from outside the team, if preferred, or proceed without an advisor.

The parties may be accompanied by their advisor in all meetings and interviews at which the party is entitled to be present, including intake and interviews. Advisors should help their advisees prepare for each meeting, and are expected to advise ethically, with integrity and in good faith. The university cannot guarantee equal advisory rights, meaning that if one party selects an advisor who is an attorney, but the other party does not or cannot afford an attorney, the University is not obligated to provide one.

All advisors are subject to the same campus rules, whether they are attorneys or not. Advisors may not address campus officials in a meeting or interview unless invited to. The advisor may not make a presentation or represent the reporting party or the responding party during any meeting or proceeding and may not speak on behalf of the advisee to the investigators. The parties are expected to ask and respond to questions on their own behalf, without representation by their advisor. Advisors may confer quietly with their advisee or in writing as necessary, as long as they do not disrupt the process. For longer or more involved discussions, the parties and their advisors should ask for breaks or step out of meetings to allow for private conversations. Advisors will typically be given an opportunity to meet in advance of any interview or meeting with the administrative officials conducting the interview or meeting. This pre-meeting will allow advisors to clarify any questions they may have and allows the University an opportunity to clarify the role the advisor is expected to take.

Advisors are expected to refrain from interference with the investigation and resolution. Any advisor who steps out of their role will be warned once and only once. If the advisor continues to disrupt or otherwise fails to respect the limits of the advisor role, the advisor will be asked to leave the meeting. When an advisor is removed from a meeting, that meeting will typically continue without the advisor present. Subsequently, the Title IX Coordinator will determine whether the advisor may be reinstated, may be replaced by a different advisor, or whether the party will forfeit the right an advisor for the remainder of the process.

The University expects that the parties will wish to share documentation related to the allegations with their advisors. The University provides a consent form that authorizes such sharing. The parties must complete this form before the University is able to share records with an advisor, though parties may share the information directly with their advisor if they wish. Advisors are expected to maintain the privacy of the records shared with them. These records may not be shared with 3rd parties, disclosed publicly, or used for purposes not explicitly authorized by the University. The University may seek to restrict the role of any advisor who does not respect the sensitive nature of the process or who fails to abide by the University’s privacy expectations.

The University expects an advisor to adjust their schedule to allow them to attend University meetings when scheduled. The University does not typically change scheduled meetings to accommodate an advisor’s inability to attend. The University will however, make reasonable provisions to allow an advisor who cannot attend in person to attend a meeting by telephone, video and/or virtual meeting technologies as may be convenient and available. Advisors may not meet with investigators without their advisee present.

A party may elect to change advisors during the process and is not locked into using the same advisor throughout.

The parties must advise the investigators of the identity of their advisor at least one (1) day before the date of their first meeting with investigators (or as soon as possible if a more expeditious meeting is necessary or desired). The parties must provide timely notice to investigators if they change advisors at any time.

7. Resolution

Proceedings are private. All persons present at any time during the resolution process are expected to maintain the privacy of the proceedings in accord with University policy. While the contents of the hearing are private, the parties have discretion to share their own experiences if they so choose, and should discuss doing so with their advisor.

a. Conflict Resolution

Conflict Resolution is often used for less serious, yet inappropriate behaviors, and is encouraged as an alternative to the formal hearing process to resolve conflicts. The Title IX Coordinator will determine if conflict resolution is appropriate, based on the willingness of the parties, the nature of the conduct at issue and the susceptibility of the conduct to conflict resolution. In a conflict resolution meeting, a trained administrator will facilitate a dialogue with the parties to an effective resolution, if possible. Sanctions are not possible as the result of a conflict resolution process, though the parties may agree to appropriate remedies. The Title IX Coordinator will keep records of any resolution that is reached, and failure to abide by the accord can result in appropriate responsive actions.

Conflict resolution will not be the primary resolution mechanism used to address reports of violent behavior of any kind or in other cases of serious violations of policy though it may be made available after the formal process is completed should the parties and Title IX Coordinator believe that it could be beneficial. Mediation will not be used in cases of sexual violence. It is not necessary to pursue conflict resolution first in order to pursue Administrative Resolution, and any party participating in conflict resolution can stop that process at any time and request a shift to Administrative Resolution.
b. Administrative Resolution

Administrative Resolution can be pursued for any behavior that falls within the policy on Equal Opportunity, Harassment and Nondiscrimination, at any time during the process.

In Administrative Resolution, the Title IX Coordinator has the authority to address all collateral misconduct, meaning that they hear all allegations of discrimination, harassment and retaliation, but also may address any additional alleged policy violations that have occurred in concert with the discrimination, harassment or retaliation, even though those collateral allegations may not specifically fall within the policy on Equal Opportunity, Harassment and Nondiscrimination. Accordingly, investigation’s should be conducted with as wide a scope as necessary.

Administrative Resolution relies on the evidence, information and recommended findings within the investigation report to render a determination. Upon completion of the investigation, the investigator will provide the Title IX Coordinator with a written report summarizing the evidence gathered and determined, including an assessment of credibility of the parties and witnesses, an analysis of the information and a recommended finding and sanction(if applicable). The Title IX Coordinator will conduct any additional necessary inquiry and then finalize a determination in accordance with the procedures below. The Title IX Coordinator will consider, but is not bound by, the recommendation of the investigation.

Any evidence that the Title IX Coordinator believes is relevant or credible may be considered, including history and pattern evidence. The Title IX Coordinator may exclude irrelevant or immaterial evidence and may choose to disregard evidence lacking in credibility or that is improperly prejudicial.

Unless the Title IX Coordinator determines it is appropriate, the investigation and the finding will not consider: (1) incidents not directly related to the possible violation, unless they show a pattern, (2) the sexual history between the party (though there may be a limited exception made in regards to the sexual history between the parties), (3) or the character of the reporting party. While previous conduct violations by the responding party are not general admissible as information about the present allegation, the investigator will supply the Title IX Coordinator with information about previous good faith allegations and/or findings to be considered as evidence of pattern and/or predatory conduct.

Neither the Title IX Coordinator nor investigators will meet with character witnesses, but investigators will accept up to two (2) letters supporting the character of each of the parties.

The Title IX Coordinator will base the determination(s) on the preponderance of the evidence, whether it is more likely than not that the responding party violated violate policy alleged.

The responding party may choose to admit responsibility for all or part of the alleged policy violations at any point during the investigation or Administrative Resolution process. If the responding party admits responsibility, the Title IX Coordinator will render a determination that the individual is in violation of University policy.

If the responding party admits the violation, or is found in violation, the Title IX Coordinator in consultation with others as appropriate, will determine an appropriate sanction or responsive action, will implement it, and act promptly and effectively to stop the harassment or discrimination, prevent it’s recurrence and remedy the effects of the discriminatory conduct.

The Title IX Coordinator will inform the parties of the final determination within three (3) days of the resolution, simultaneously. Notification that a determination has been made will be emailed to both parties with consideration of both the reporting party and responding party’s class schedule. This allows both parties to choose where they would like to be and who they would like to be present when they receive the notification. Emails will be sent to party’s CSP accounts if they are both students or to the preferred email of a non-CSP individual that is shared at an intake. Once mailed, emailed and/or received in person, notice will be presumptively delivered. The notification of outcomes will specify the finding on each alleged policy violation, any sanctions that may result which the University is permitted to share according to state or federal law, and the rationale supporting the essential findings to the extent the University is permitted to share under state or federal law. The notice will also include information on when the results are considered by the University to be final, any changes that occur prior to finalization, and any appeals options that are available.

c. Sanctions

Factors considered when determining a sanction/responsive action may include:

- The nature, severity of, and circumstances surrounding violations
- An individual’s disciplinary history
- Previous allegations or allegations involving similar conduct
- Any other information deemed relevant by the investigators
- The need for sanctions/responsive actions to bring an end to the discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation
- The need for sanctions/responsive actions to prevent the further recurrence of discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation
- The need to remedy the effects of the discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation on the reporting party and the community.

d. Withdrawal or Resignation While Charges Pending

Students: Should a student decide to leave and/or not participate in the EGP, the process will nonetheless proceed in the student’s absence to a reasonable resolution and that student will not be permitted to return to the University unless all sanctions have been satisfied. The student will not have access to an academic transcript until the allegations have been resolved.

Employees: Should an employee resign with unresolved allegations pending, the records of the Title IX Coordinator will reflect that status, and any University response to future inquiries regarding employment references for that individual will indicate the former employee is ineligible for rehire.

e. Appeals

All requests for appeal consideration must be submitted in writing to the Title IX Coordinator within three (3) business days of the delivery of the written finding of the Title IX Coordinator. Any party may appeal the findings and/or sanctions only under the grounds described below.
An appeal panel chosen from the EGP team will be designated by the Title IX Coordinator from those who have not been involved in the process previously. Any party may be appealed, but appeals are limited to the following grounds:

- A procedural error or omission occurred that significantly impacted the outcome of the hearing (e.g. substantial bias, material deviation from established procedure, etc).
- To consider new evidence, unknown or unavailable during the original hearing or investigation, that could substantially impact the original finding or sanction. A summary of this new evidence or its potential impact must be included.
- The sanctions imposed fall outside the range of sanctions the University has designated for this offense and the cumulative record of the responding party.

The appeals panel will review the appeal request(s). The original finding and sanction/responsive actions will stand if the appeal is not timely or is not based on the grounds listed above, and such a decision is final. The party requesting appeal must show the grounds have not been met, and the other party or parties may show the grounds have not been met, or that additional grounds are met. The original findings and sanctions are presumed to have been decided reasonably and appropriately. When any party requests an appeal, the Title IX Coordinator will share the appeal request with the other party(ies), who may file a response within three (3) business days and/or bring their own appeal on separate grounds. If new grounds are raised, the original appealing party will be permitted to submit a written response to these new grounds within three (3) business days. These responses or appeal requests will be shared with each party.

Where the appeals panel finds that at least one of the grounds is met by at least one party, additional principles governing the hearing of appeals will include the following:

- Decisions by the appeals panel are to be deferential to the original decision, making changes to the finding only where there is clear error and to the sanction/responsive action only if there is a compelling justification to do so.
- Appeals are not intended to be full-rehearing (de novo) of the allegation. In most cases, appeals are confined to a review of the written documentation or record of the investigation, and pertinent documentation regarding the grounds for appeal. An appeal is not an opportunity for appeals panelists to substitute their judgement for that of the original investigators or Title IX Coordinator merely because they disagree with its finding and/or sanctions.
- Appeals granted based on new evidence should normally be remanded to the investigator(s) for reconsideration. Other appeals may be remanded at the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator or, in limited circumstances, heard by the appeals panel.
- Sanctions imposed as the result of Administrative Resolution are implemented immediately unless the Title IX Coordinator or designee stays their implementation pending the outcome of the appeal.
  - For students: Graduation, study abroad, internships, etc. do NOT in and of themselves constitute exigent circumstances, and students may not be able to participate in those activities during their appeal.
- The Title IX Coordinator will confer with the appeals panel, incorporate the results of any remanded grounds, and render a written decision on the appeal to all parties within three (3) business days of the resolution of the appeal or remand.
- Once an appeal is decided, the outcome is final: further appeals are not permitted even if a decision or sanction is changed on remand.
- All parties will be informed in writing within three (3) business days of the outcome of the appeal panel without significant time delay between notification and in accordance with the standards for notice of outcome as defined above.
- In rare cases where a procedural or substantive error cannot be cured by the original investigator(s) and/or the Title IX Coordinator (as in cases of bias), the appeals panel may recommend a new investigation and/or EGP, including
• In cases where the appeals result in reinstatement to the University or resumption of privileges, all reasonable attempts will be made to restore the responding party to their prior status, recognizing that some opportunities lost may be irreparable in the short term.

f. Long-Term Remedies/Actions

Following the conclusion of the EGP and in addition to any sanctions implemented, the Title IX Coordinator may utilize long-term remedies or actions to stop the harassment or discrimination, remedy its effects and prevent their reoccurrence. These remedies/actions may include but are not limited to:

• Referral to counseling and/or community health services
• Referral to the Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
• Education to the community
• Permanently altering the housing situation of the responding party (resident student or resident employee (or the reporting party, if desired))
• Permanently altering work arrangements for employees
• Providing campus escorts
• Climate surveys
• Policy modification
• Providing transportation accommodations
• Implementing long-term contact limitations between the parties
• Offering adjustments to academic deadlines, course schedules, etc.

At the discretion of the Title IX Coordinator, long term remedies may also be provided even when the responding party is found not responsible.

The institution will maintain as confidential any long-term remedies/actions or protective measures, provided confidentiality does not impair the institutions ability to provide the action or protective measures.

g. Failure to Complete Sanctions/Comply with Interim and Long-Term Remedies/Responsive Actions

All responding parties are expected to comply with conduct sanctions, responsive actions and corrective actions within the timeframe specified by the Title IX Coordinator. Failure to abide by these conduct sanctions, responsive actions and corrective actions by the date specified, whether by refusal, neglect or any other reason, may result in additional sanctions/responsive/corrective actions and/or suspension, expulsion and/or termination from the University and may be noted on a student’s official transcript. A suspension will only be lifted when compliance is achieved to the satisfaction of the Title IX Coordinator.

h. Records

In implementing this policy, records of all allegations, investigations, resolutions and other related documents will be kept by the Title IX Coordinator indefinitely in the Maxient Title IX Coordinator database.

8. Disabilities Accommodation in the Equity Grievance Process

Concordia University is committed to providing qualified students, employees or others with disabilities with reasonable accommodations and support needed to ensure equal access to the Equity Grievance Process. Anyone needing such accommodations or support should contact the Student Accessibilities Office, who will review the request and in consultation with the person requesting the accommodation, and the Title IX Coordinator determine which accommodations are appropriate and necessary for full participation.

9. Revisions

These policies and procedures will be reviewed and updated annually by the Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title IX Coordinator. The University reserves the right to make changes to this document as necessary and once these changes are posted online, they are in effect. The Title IX Coordinator/Deputy Coordinator may make minor modifications to procedures that do not materially jeopardize the fairness owed to any party, such as to accommodate summer schedules, etc. The Title IX Coordinator/Deputy Coordinator may also vary procedures materially with notice (on the institutional website) with appropriate date of effect identified upon determining that changes to law or regulation require policy or procedural alternation not reflected in this policy and procedure. Procedures in effect at the time of the resolution will apply to resolution of incidents, regardless of when the incident occurred. Policy in effect at the time of the offense will apply even if the policy is changed subsequently but prior to resolution, unless the parties consent to be bound by the current policy. If government regulations change in a way that impacts this document, this document will be constructed to comply with government regulation in their most recent form.

This document does not create legally enforceable protections beyond the protection of Minnesota laws and federal laws which frame such codes generally.

Pregnant and Parenting Student’s Rights for Concordia Students under Title IX

At Concordia University, we want you to be successful in your educational endeavors and career goals. Under Title IX you have a right to receive appropriate support to assist you in achieving these goals. The following information will provide you, as a student with children, additional details to assure that you continue to be on track with your education during this time.

Often Title IX is seen as prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sex. However it also extends into supporting students who are pregnant, parenting, and all related conditions. This means that Concordia University is required to give all students who might be, are or have been pregnant the same access to school programs and other educational opportunities that other students have. Your professors or administrators should not tell you that you have to drop out of your classes or program or change your educational plans due to pregnancy. Your absences due to pregnancy and or any other related condition must be excused as long as your doctor says it is necessary for you to be absent. If you take a leave of absence, you must be reinstated to the status you were before your leave. Like other students who are requesting for an excused absence due to medical reasons, Concordia may require you to submit a doctor’s note explaining this need.

We want you to be successful in the classroom and for that reason, you cannot be penalized for pregnancy and other conditions. If there is a specific “point” system for class attendance, you must be given the opportunity to earn back the credit. You also will be given the opportunity to make up the work that you missed while you were out due to pregnancy or any related conditions, including recovery from childbirth. For example, if you have a doctor’s note that excuses you from class for several weeks because you were on “bed rest” before giving birth, Concordia must provide you with the appropriate assignments and information to make up all of the work that you would have been required to complete while you were out. It is important for you to be in continual contact with your instructor so that you don’t fall far behind in making up this work.

Title IX requires that schools, such as Concordia, provide pregnant students with any special services that they provide to other students with temporary disabilities. This requires the coordination and support of Student Accessibility Services who are able to outline and connect you with the necessary services that are available.
During your pregnancy, you also are allowed to continue your participation in program directed requirements such as internships. However, if you are a graduate assistant, you are considered an employee and your rights are different. In this role, you may be eligible for family or medical leave, may qualify for maternity leave but this may not include leave from your classes beyond what is medically necessary. It is important for you to work with the Human Resources Director if you are a graduate assistant.

Concordia University may not be terminated or reduce your athletic, merit or need-based scholarship funds based on pregnancy. If you stay in school, you can keep your scholarship during the period of its award.

At times it may seem like it would be easier to just take the semester off. This is an option but only if your doctor says it is medically necessary. If it is not medically necessary, you must comply with Concordia’s non-medical leave policy.

Once you return to school, if you are nursing, you should be provided with break times for pumping breast milk. Concordia University does have a Mother’s Room that allows you the privacy and space to do this. Contact the Title IX Deputy Coordinator for assistance with gaining access to this space.

Concordia University is also a harassment free school and this includes harassment based on pregnancy. If you experience this sort of treatment at school, please contact the Title IX Deputy Coordinator. The law prohibits retaliation against you for making a complaint or raising a concern.

Title IX also may intersect with the American’s with Disabilities Act (ADAAA). While pregnancy alone is not considered a disability, if you have complications from pregnancy that significantly limit a major life activity (e.g., ability to walk normal distances, require bed rest, etc) you may be considered for a short term disability under the ADAAA. (Department of Justice, 2010)

If you have questions regarding your rights under Title IX or access to the Mother’s Room, please contact Sara Mulso, Title IX Deputy Coordinator, at 651-641-8857 or smulso@csp.edu.

Melissa Fletcher (fletcher@csp.edu) or Josie Hurka (hurka@csp.edu) with Student Accessibility Services may be contacted with questions regarding accommodations for short-term pregnancy issues.
STORAGE OF BICYCLES

Bicycles may only be stored in student rooms or on provided racks. Bicycles may not be left in common areas or chained to stairwells, lights poles and the like. Unattended bicycles or those that are not stored properly are subject to removal.

TOBACCO AND SMOKING POLICIES

A. All indoor areas are smoke-free, thus creating a “Clean Indoor Air Policy.” Smoking is not permitted in the entrances to buildings, offices, “tunnel” hallways, classrooms, residence halls, dining hall, athletic facilities and all other indoor areas. Note that “e-cigs” are included in the policy and are not permitted inside of buildings on campus.

B. Receptacles for cigarettes, cigars and other tobacco products are positioned near building entrances. Smokers must smoke outdoors, at least 20 feet from any building to insure that entrances are free of smoke.

UNIVERSITY OPEN BURNING AND RECREATIONAL FIRES

Recreational fires are allowed by permit only within assigned fire rings. Permits can be requested through recognized University organizations and departments through the Office of Conference and Events Services. Failure to obtain a permit is subject to disciplinary action.

University provided BBQ grills used for the sole purpose of cooking do not require a permit. Safe and proper disposal of charcoal or other ashes is required after use.
